MRS. RENA HELBIG ENTERTAINS SOCIAL CLUB ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Rena Helbig entertained the Social Club of George Starmer Auxiliary to U.S.W.V. at a charming one o'clock luncheon Thursday at her home. Covers were placed at a prettily appointed table for Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, Mrs. Argie Reels, Mrs. Orlean Slattery, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. Irene Williams, Mrs. S. W. Starmer and granddaughter, Sandra; Mrs. H. A. Taylor and the hostess, Mrs. Helbig.

Visiting and sewing were enjoyed during the social hour.

To Visit Here

Berta M. Howell.

Miss Berta M. Howell, regional field adviser for Camp Fire Girls, Inc., will arrive in Roseburg Sunday, November 9, according to an announcement by Mrs. A. J. Elliott, president of the Roseburg Camp Fire Council. Miss Howell takes the place of Miss Eldora de Mott, who is now serving in Southern California and Arizona.

During her visit, Miss Howell, who covers the area comprising Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, will meet with members of local council and Camp Fire Guardians and Bluebird leaders.

Monday, November 10, a luncheon honoring Miss Howell will be held at the Rose Hotel at 12:15 o'clock for all council members. An important business session will follow at one-thirty o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce office.

On Wednesday Miss Howell will meet all Camp Fire guardians and Bluebird leaders at the Chamber of Commerce office at one-thirty o'clock. She will have much of interest to discuss and help for all Camp Fire leaders and they are looking forward to her visit with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Miss Howell, a native of Marion, Ind., received her A. B. degree from the University of Chicago, where she was secretary in the department of Oriental languages and literatures while a student. She has had business experience in her native city and was also associated with the Curtis Publishing Company in Chicago. For two years she was director of "The Radio Panel" and analysis of network radio audiences, published by Industrial Surveys Company in New York.

NEW IDEA CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT MACK HOME ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Gilbert Mack was a most gracious hostess to the New Idea Club of Edgewater at a delicious one o'clock luncheon Wednesday at her home. Fall flowers formed the decorations. Covers were placed for Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. F. H. Applehoff, Mrs. W. D. Hess, Mrs. Allen Moore, Mrs. W. D. Harris, Mrs. John H. Porter, Mrs. E. T. Nelson, Mrs. Clifford Hies, Mrs. Walter Edmonds, Mrs. V. R. Buckingham and the hostess, Mrs. Mack.

A short business meeting was followed by a social hour. The next meeting will be December 3 at a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. T. T. Nelson.

DR. AND MRS. FISK ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER PARTY SATURDAY

Dr. and Mrs. W. Heydon Fisk entertained at a charming turkey dinner party at their beautiful home Saturday evening in compliment to Miss Naomi Scott on her birthday.

Covers were placed at a prettily appointed table for Miss Scott, guest of honor, her sister, Mrs. Elwood H. Wiles; Mrs. H. H. Stapleton and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Fisk. The affair also celebrated Mrs. Fisk's birthday, which had occurred a few days before.

A pleasant social evening followed the dinner.

CONFERENCE HELD BY B. P. W. CLUBS AT GRANTS PASS

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club was represented at the Southern Oregon District conference of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs meeting in Grants Pass Sunday, November 2nd, by Mrs. Edna Helgeson, president of the Roseburg Club and Miss V. Vivian Logsdon, treasurer.

Proceeding the morning session the Grants Pass Club served doughnuts and coffee to all members as they arrived. The meeting was called to order by Miss Laura York of Medford, who is chairman of the Southern Oregon District for this year. A very cordial address of welcome was given by Fern C. Trull, president of the Grants Pass Club. Members joined in the flag salute and were then lead in prayer by Mrs. Edna Helgeson of the Roseburg Club. State officers and committee-women present and introduced were: Second Vice-President, Mrs. Charlene Edwards of Philomath, Oregon; International Relations Chairman, Miss Eunice Courtwright of Corvallis; Membership and Emblem Chairman, Mrs. Zepha Pierson of Grants Pass; and Miss Eleanor Weatherford of Klamath Falls, public affairs chairman.

Miss Courtwright called on the local presidents of each club represented to report on activities of her club with reference to international relations. Many fine reports proved to be very interesting and instructive. The state membership chairman, Mrs. Pierson, talked on the state goal of 2000 members for the year of 1947-48. Miss Pierson explained the stabilization citation, the extension citation and the expansion citation which are awarded by the National Federation late in the spring. The membership committee-women from each of the local clubs told how the membership in their club is retained and expanded. Miss Weatherford, chairman of the public affairs committee called on each club again for reports of activities during Business and Professional Women's Week and other public activities.

The morning session was held in the Knights of Pythias hall but was adjourned promptly at noon for a luncheon at the Sequin Club. The Sequin Club is a most attractive dining room and was opened that Sunday as a special occasion to the Business and Professional Women. The tables were attractively decorated with autumn leaves and local produce. Each guest was presented with samples of local products — namely 4 large glass bulbs and cheddar cheese. A lovely luncheon was much enjoyed.

Following the luncheon the women again assembled in the fraternal hall and listened to a fine panel discussion of the United Nations as presented by six girls from the Grants Pass High School. This discussion was exceptionally instructive and well presented by these girls from the Junior Class. Miss Courtwright assisted by Mrs. Edwards then discussed the Oregon plan as it is being presented to the Oregon

MRS. CHAPMAN IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB AND GUESTS

Zinnias and fuchsias formed a pretty decorative motif for the one o'clock dessert-luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., when she graciously entertained her bridge club and several guests at her lovely home in Laurelwood.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. P. Amlot, Mrs. Keith Bryant, Mrs. Alden Kilborn, Mrs. L. K. Fies and Mrs. Robert Helliwell, guests, and Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Ed Nolte, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. Roy Cummins, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. J. J. Cooper and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

High scores for the contract bridge play went to Mrs. Kilborn, Mrs. Amlot and Mrs. Henninger.
