Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Sr., of Canyonville, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reception from three to five o'clock Sunday at the home of their son, Frank Hamlin, in Riddle.

The reception was preceded by a turkey dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin and Mrs. Ira B. Poole for 24 relatives, Judy Bell Smith, of Portland, granddaughter of the honored couple, asked the blessing.

Seated at the table according to age and relationship to Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin, Sr. were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Jr., son and daughter, Edmund III and Marilyn Jean of Salt Lake City, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and daughter, Judy Bell, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. David L. Taylor and son, Tommy of Roseburg; and daughter, Miss Carla Lee, student at University of Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin and son, Charles, of Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Poole, Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin and son, George, student at Oregon State College, and daughter, Mrs. Mildred Nichols of Corpus Christi, Tex., and her sons, Rex and Ira, who are the great grandsons of the Hamlin, Sr.

Pictures of the honored couple and the group were taken by Gene Powell of the Master Studio in Roseburg.

Huge baskets of golden-colored chrysanthemums were used about the room. The service table was centered with a beautiful tiered and decorated wedding cake, which was served by the honored couple's daughter, Mrs. David L. Taylor. Another daughter, Mrs. Walter Smith, of Portland, served the punch. Miss Carla Lee Taylor sang, "I Love You Truly." The guest book was in charge of Mrs. James Nichols.

A large number of friends called during the reception to honor Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin, who are prominent pioneer residents of Douglas county.

Mrs. S. J. COOPER ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

Thanksgiving favors, chrysanthemums and tall lighted yellow tapers graced the linen covered tablecloth used by Mrs. S. J. Cooper Wednesday afternoon, when she graciously entertained her bridge club at her lovely home in Laurelwood. Bouquets of hydrangeas were used in the living room.
