Marry on November 8th

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle McIntire.

At an altar setting of white chrysanthemums and tall lighted tapers, Dorothy Tucker became the bride of Lyle McIntire at the Methodist Church November 8. Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and close friends.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Tucker, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a light brown gown with a white collar and cuffs and carried a small white bouquet.

Miss Margaret Tucker was maid of honor to her sister and wore a powder blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. John Hardeman was best man and Robert Birt of Camas, Wash., and Harry Duncan of Roseburg were ushers.

Mrs. Gordon Stewart played the traditional wedding marches and preceded the ceremony, Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones sang "Because" and at the close of the service she sang "Love You Truly."

The bride's mother wore a grey wool suit with black accessories and a red rosebud corsage. Mrs. Edna McIntire, mother of the bridegroom, wore a military blue ensemble and a corsage of red rosebuds.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom.

Mrs. Harry Duncan, aunt of the bride, poured, and Mrs. Curtis Lyle, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake. Miss Patty Tucker, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book. She wore a dress of royal blue velvet with a corsage of gardenias.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McIntire are well-known young people of Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in June 1947 and is employed at Kammer's Drug Store. Mr. McIntire served in the Merchant Marine during the war and is now manager of the fountain at Kammer's.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Edna McIntire of Woodland, Ida.; mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Masil Taylor, Miss Agnes Taylor, Mrs. Alice Franseith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birt, Mrs. Beverly Goude, all of Camas, Wash., and Miss Mickey Cole of Bonneville, Wash. EXTENSION UNIT HAS ALL-DAY MEETING AND LUNCHEON TUESDAY

"Buffet Meals and Entertaining" was the subject for the meeting of the Olalla-Tenmile Home Extension Unit Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louisa Coats in Tenmile. Twenty-five women attended.

Project leaders for the day were Esther Cabot and Maureen Meutzel. Mrs. Cabot stressed the importance of buffet meals in serving larger groups thus allowing them to enjoy a meal together in a home, where they could not be served otherwise. Mrs. Cabot, assisted by Mrs. Meutzel, demonstrated how to prepare "chicken loaf," pear salad on lettuce and New Rochelle pudding, which were served with the noon luncheon. The buffet table was beautiful with fall flowers and turkey miniatures. Mrs. Cabot explained how to arrange the food, table setting and the correct way of serving one's self.

Adda Ollivant poured and Louisa Coats served the salad.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Meutzel gave an interesting talk on buffet meals and how to make attractive favors and placecards. Adda Ollivant conducted a short business meeting and displayed a very beautiful quilt top donated by Mrs. Crete Carnell, which will be sold when finished. Proceeds will be used to help build "Azalea House," a cooperative house for girls on the O. S. C. campus. Mrs. Renie Jenkins donated the cotton. Everyone is asked to attend sewing meetings December 9-10 at the home of Mrs. Junia Byron to finish the quilt. Potluck luncheon will be served at noon both sewing days.

The next regular meeting will be January 27 at 1:30 o'clock at the Olalla hall. The subject will be "Good Taste in Clothes."

Those present were Zerita Ollivant, Renie Jenkins, Emma Swift, Metta Calkins, Phoebe Tennyson, Hazel Ison, Helen Young, Minnie Lockwood, Alice Meutzel, Mable Roberts, Louisa Coats, Adda Ollivant, Mary Hodges, Pauline Gore, Junia Byron, Alice Dwight, Julia Brettenbacher, Garnet Folmsbee, Hazel Nuzum, Elaine Roberts, Bernice Parker, Alice Tyler, Maurine Meutzel, and Esther Cabot and the demonstration agent Dorothea Parker.

FRIENDLY CIRCLE CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Friendly Circle Club met at the home of Myrtle Perkins Wednesday with Ginger Howard as co-hostess. Fifteen members answered roll-call. A short business session was followed by interesting games with Elsie Mills and Mrs. Vowel winning the prizes.

Members having birthdays in October, November and December were guests of honor and lovely gifts were presented to them. The serving table was beautifully appointed with colored autumn leaves with clever corsages made of handkerchiefs for each one.

Delicious refreshments were served to Margaret Pfaff, Frances Reece, Persis Vowel, June Stillner, Grace Bowen, Ruth Reece, Josie Pfaff, Ida Allison, Laila Townsend, Lena Pfaff, Elsie Mills, Ella Moore, Nan Hulbert and the hostesses, Ginger Howard and Myrtle Perkins.

The club will hold its annual Christmas party and dinner at six-thirty o'clock the evening of December 10 at the home of Mrs. Ella Moore. All members and their families are most cordially invited and everyone attending has been asked to bring a gift to exchange, as well as the Pollyanna gifts. Those attending are also asked to bring their own table service. The club will furnish the turkey and the remainder of the dinner will be furnished by the club members.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S COUNCIL HAS MEETING AT CACY HOME MONDAY

The Junior Woman's Club Council met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Cacy. Mrs. Carl Wassom, president, conducted the meeting and routine business matters were attended to.

Following the meeting Mrs. Cacy served lovely refreshments to Mrs. Wassom and Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. George Crocker, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. Robert Harris and Mrs. Cecil Thompson.

Marry at Episcopal Church

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Jannelli.

In a setting of white chrysanthemums and tall white cathedral candles, Miss Arleen Cone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cone, and Pat J. Jannelli son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat J. Jannelli, Sr., all of Roseburg, were married Saturday evening, November 8, at St. George's Episcopal Church. Father William L. Blaker performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and friends.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelly, organist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of lace and orange blossoms.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white and pink chrysanthemums centered with gardenias.

Mrs. William Manella of Lebanon, matron of honor, wore a gown of blue satin and net with a matching headpiece of net. She carried a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums. Sal Di Muccio, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Francis Di Muccio and Bud Calhoun.

A reception followed in the parish house, at which time the beautifully decorated and tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. A. C. Clark. Mrs. R. F. Torgeson served the punch and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Stella Snider, had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a champagne colored suit with brown accessories and a gold link bracelet and necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Out of town guests attending were Mrs. Stella Snider, Portland, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dolson, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cone, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cone, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. John Jannelli, Visalia, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Di Muccio, Francis Di Muccio, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Di Muccio and daughter, Angie, and Mrs. E.
