POWELL-BLAKE RITES READ BEFORE FIREPLACE AT G. C. BLAKE HOME

Before a fireplace banked with greenery and arranged with bouquets of white chrysanthemums Miss Joyce Powell of Sutherlin and Allan S. Blake, of this city were married Saturday evening, Nov. 22 at 8 o'clock, at the G. C. Blake home on North Stephens street.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Kenneth Knox, pastor of the First Christian Church, in the presence of 25 relatives and close friends of the couple. The bride is the daughter of Elmer Powell of Mitchell, Ore., and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blake of this city.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Genevieve Blake played piano selections. Mrs. Milton Giegar of Sutherlin, sister of the bride and Wm. Evan Blake, brother of the bridegroom attended the couple.

The bride was dressed in a modish afternoon frock of pink sharkskin from Honolulu. She wore a corsage of white roses.

Following the wedding a reception honored the bridal party. The service table was laid with a cloth of silk lace and centered with a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and lighted tapers. The three-tiered wedding cake was first cut by the bride and bridegroom and served by Mrs. William Powell of Sutherlin. Mrs. George Nelson served the bridegroom's cake and Mrs. Van Woodward of Sutherlin presided at the coffee urn and Miss Blake at the punch bowl. Ices were served by Mrs. G. C. Blake and Mrs. V. V. Harpham.

The couple plan to reside in Roseburg.

FULLERTON P.T.A. TO FURNISH TREATS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Fullerton P.T.A. members completed plans for a rummage sale which was held today at the Episcopal parish hall when they met at the schoolhouse Monday evening. Mrs. Harold Backen, events and means chairman, headed the committee for the affair.

The January meeting of the association will be on the subject, "Physical Education" and at that time Mr. Turner will present a group of boys in a tumbling exhibit.

It was planned for the P.T.A. to again give Christmas treats to all the Fullerton school pupils with the room representatives assisting. Mrs. N. D. Johnson was introduced as Founder's Day program chairman with Mrs. C. K. Rand, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Mrs. Cecil Lowe and Mrs. Joe Spouta also on the committee.

Mrs. J. M. Boyles, president, thanked all present for their help with the successful carnival held in October by the P.T.A., teachers and pupils.

The meeting was opened with the flag salute and singing of America, followed by Mrs. A. J. Ellison leading the group in Christmas carols. Mrs. R. T. Cowell sang two selections. She was accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow. The sixth grade won the room prize with the most parents present at the meeting.

CORBITT-BECHTOLD RITES READ AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

PALM SPRINGS, Calif.—An impressive autumn wedding was solemnized at St. Charles Catholic Church, North Hollywood, on November 29th, when marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Mabel Corbitt, of North Hollywood, and Hugh Bechtold, CPC, USN, of Roseburg, Oregon.

A large gathering of friends and relatives witnessed the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Chas. Meade. Among out-of-town relatives present were Mrs. H. Bechtold, Roseburg, Oregon, mother of the groom; sister of the bride, Mrs. V. J. Munson and Mr. Munson, of Palm Springs, and former Valleyites, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Bailey of San Diego, Mrs. B. A. Gildea, Mrs. Earl Gildea and son, and Mr. and Mrs. John Robushka, all of Los Angeles.

The bride wore a period gown of white velvet and satin with leg-muffon sleeves, bouffant skirt and long train. A coronet cap of exquisite old lace secured the illusion of long hair, fingertip length. The bride carried her bouquet and a bouquet of gardenia, bouvardia and white sweet peas with satin ribbon. She was given in marriage by her brother, Wm. J. Corbitt. Ushers were Wm. Schallert, John Snyder and Rich and Meriwether.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Louella Richards wore turquoise taffeta and carried autumn flowers.

Harlan Bechtold, of Roseburg, Oregon, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Bechtold, mother of the groom, was attired in a turquoise wool suit, black sequin hat and a fur wrap.

Mrs. V. J. Munson, sister of the bride, wore cinnamon colored wool, trimmed with grey satin. Mrs. Wm. J. Corbitt, sister-in-law of the bride, chose wine colored crepe for her outfit, with a feathered hat.

A reception was held at the home of Councilman and Mrs. Leland S. Warburton following the ceremony, where the couple cut a huge wedding cake.

An extensive honeymoon trip is planned by the couple, who left for San Francisco after the reception. Mrs. Bechtold is employed by Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, and Mr. Bechtold will make the Navy his career.

LOCAL RESIDENTS LEAVE FOR EXTENDED TOUR OF SOUTH AMERICA
