

Olsen, Dorsetti Billed For Another Mat Bout

Douglas county mat fans will get an extra treat at the Roseburg armory Saturday night in Elton Owen's wrestling show. Besides the outstanding main event between Tony Ross and Joe Lynam, Owen is bringing to them a rematch of last week's torrid session between Milt Olsen and Joe Dorsetti.

Olsen, popular Swede from Minnesota, and mat king in two states, will be getting a second crack at the New York Italian villain.

The durable Olsen will be meeting a foe who can resort to almost any skulduggery that "ain't rules," so will have to be on his toes if he expects to gain a win. But Olsen is a classy little wrestler who has plenty of tricks in his repertoire and the villain will more than have his hands full in the semi-final engagement.

Michigan 49-0 Victor in Rose Bowl Battle

Chappius Sparks Big Nine
Champions to Triumph;
East Trims West, 40-9

By BOB GRUBB

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Michigan's thumping 49-0 Rose Bowl victory over Southern California re-kindled the fire today under the hottest argument of the 1947 college football season.

Notre Dame's unbeaten and untied fighting Irish were voted the outstanding team of the year in the Associated Press' final poll of sports writers, but the Michigan adherents point to yesterday's victory at Pasadena in laying claim to at least a share of the mythical collegiate championship of the nation.

Fritz Crisler's big nine champions, by completely outclassing the West Coast standard-bearers by the most lopsided score in modern Rose Bowl history, eclipsed the 38-7, shellacking Notre Dame handed U. S. C. last Dec. 6.

It was a duplicate of the 49-0 tally by which Michigan's famed "dint-a-minute" team swamped Stanford in the inaugural Tournament of Roses clash 45 years ago and it was the worst defeat in 60 years of football at Southern California.

All-America Bob Chappius sparked the Wolverines to their greatest success, registering a total of 279 yards running and passing for what may be a modern individual record.

An estimated half-million spectators sat in on the score or more post-season offering, with Pasadena's 93,000 turnout tons for the day.

Tie in Cotton Bowl
The clash of two of the nation's unbeaten elevens in Dallas' Cotton Bowl saw Penn State's Lions come charging back from a 13-0 deficit at the hands of Southern Methodists' Mustangs to gain a 13-13 tie.

In the Orange Bowl clash at Miami, Georgia Tech beat back Kansas, 20-14, after the Jayhawkers blew a golden scoring opportunity in the final minutes.

Tech's recovery of a Kansas fumble on the one-yard line stymied the Jayhawkers' chances. The versatile Bobby Layne led his Texas Longhorns to a decisive 27-7 victory over outclassed Alabama in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

Lujack Stars For East
Notre Dame, although not represented on the post-season program, gained a measure of the day's honors through the sensational performance of its All-America quarterback, Johnny Lujack, as the Eastern all-stars mangled the West, 40-9, in the Shrine charity game at San Francisco. Lujack drove the Easterners to four touchdowns and scored one himself.

Charley Conerly checked two last-quarter touchdowns passes that gave Mississippi a 13-9 victory over Texas Christian in a Delta Bowl thriller.

Arkansas twice came from behind to edge William and Mary, 21-19, in the inaugural Dixie Bowl game at Birmingham.

The "Gator Bowl" at Jacksonville, Fla., ended in a 20-20 tie between Maryland and Georgia, thus preserving Georgia's Coach Wally Butts' unbeaten record in five bowl contests.

Missourians Keep Wins Intact
Missouri Valley College ran the nation's longest unbeaten string to 32 by routing West Chester (Pa.) Teachers College, 26-7, in the Cigar Bowl at Tampa.

Nevada defeated North Texas State 13-6 in the first Salad Bowl game at Phoenix, Ariz., while Sam Houston College won over Philander Smith, 7-0, in the Cattle Bowl at Fort Worth, Tex.

College of the Pacific, playing its second post-season game, rolled to a 26-14 verdict over the University of Wichita in the Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif. The Harbor Bowl at San Diego saw Hardin-Simmons trounce San Diego State, 33-0.

At El Paso, Tex., in the Sun Bowl game, Miami University of Ohio repulsed Texas Tech, 13-12. Catawba of Salisbury, N. C., defeated Marshall College of Huntington, W. Va., 7-0 in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla.

Hawaii University became the Pineapple Bowl champions at Honolulu with a "basketball"-like 33-32 verdict over the University of Redlands (Calif.).

JET GOES HIGHER
MOSES LAKE, Wash., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Out of its third test flight, Boeing Aircraft Company's experimental jet bomber, the XB-47, Tuesday climbed to 20,000 feet, highest altitude it has reached to date, officials said.
