Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Flora, Jr.

Miss Ruth Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham of Camas Valley and Joseph C. Flora, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Flora, also of Camas Valley were married at the First Presbyterian Church November 29 with Dr. Morris Roach reading the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a dusty rose dress and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. Helen Skaggs of Roseburg was maid of honor, also wearing a pink dress and carrying a colonial bouquet. Best man was William Garlinghouse, and usher was Marvin Vaughn.

They plan to make their home at Camas Valley where the bridegroom is in the logging business. Mr. Flora served in the U. S. Navy for two years.

OPEN HOUSE ATTENDED BY LARGE GROUP AT NEW PRESBYTERIAN MANSE

Despite stormy weather over 200 members and friends of the First Presbyterian church and the Morris Roach family attended open house at the new manse located at 501 South Main street, New Year's day. Hours for calling were from 2 until 5 and from 7 until 9 in the evening. During the latter part of the afternoon Mrs. Homer Grow played piano selections.

The guests were greeted at the door and escorted through the new home, which was occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach and children, Robert, Morris and Betty, the Friday prior to Christmas. Refreshments were served from a table attractively centered with a snow scene.

Mrs. Ray Buckley and Mrs. S. A. Layman were co-chairmen for the affair assisted by representatives from the various organizations in the church.

Pouring during the open house were Mrs. Ida Bailey, Miss Elinor Sherk, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. H. T. Hansen, Mrs. John Runyan, Mrs. Claire Allen, Mrs. W. H. Farris, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and Mrs. Orlena Slattery.

Assisting with the guest book and wraps were Misses Janet and Joyce Harpham, Rickey McCormick, Janice Plummer, Susan Motschenbacher, Marian Slattery, Fredericka Hamilton, Verna Carothers and Mrs. Richard Eastman, Jr.

Escorting the guests through the house were Mesdames Alva Laws, Armour Murdock, W. H. Allen, Eldred Jones, Dave McCarroll, J. G. Carlson, E. S. Hall, Sam Shoemaker, Eugene Springer and Maurice Newland.

Assisting the co-chairmen in making arrangements for the open house were Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, Mrs. Alta Simonson, Mrs. John Dingley, Mrs. Stephen Bistran, Mrs. Earl Lozier and Miss Elinor Sherk.

WOMEN'S CLUB PLANS MEETING, ART EXHIBIT

Roseburg Woman's club will meet at the armory Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for their January surprise meeting. At this time preparations will be made for the Arts and Crafts exhibit to be held Wednesday at the armory under the sponsorship of the club. Members having articles for exhibit are asked to bring them to the club meeting. A committee will remain at the Armory from 4 until 6 o'clock to receive displays from others wishing to exhibit.

The nearly extinct white Rhinoceros, is with the exception of the elephant, the largest of land mammals.

Rags which once were virtually the only source of paper pulp now supply only about three per cent of that used.
