Honored Queen of Bethel No. 8

Miss Cynthia Sue Turner.

At an impressive and beautiful ceremony Tuesday evening, December 9, at the Masonic temple, Miss Cynthia Sue Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner of Roseburg, was installed Honored Queen of Bethel No. 8, Job's Daughters, with Lorraine Losee, retiring Honored Queen, acting as installing officer.

Other officers for the installation were: Georgene Shanklin, guide; Ann Carter, marshal; Phyllis Hunsdale, chaplain; Barbara Rich, senior custodian; Yvonne Matt, junior custodian; Lois Ann Stewart, musician; and Athalie Marcell, secretary.

Officers installed with Miss Turner were: Susan Moteschenbacher, senior princess; Kay Holmes, junior princess; Joanne Taylor, guide; Rose Emily Bond, marshal; Doris Rami, chaplain; Karla Hanson, recorder; Joan Hugh, musician; Peggy McCoy, librarian; Arlene Taylor, first messenger; Zola Wilshire, second messenger; Norma Todd, third messenger; Paula Helver, fourth messenger; Barbara Rank, fifth messenger; Donna Lee Lashua, senior custodian; Joanne Ware, junior custodian; Beverly Henbest, inner guard; Peggy Knight, outer guard; Betty Ann Harvie, custodian of lights; Shirley Helweg, historian; Janice Plummer, senior scribe; JoAnn Wharton, junior scribe; and Jeanne Mowery, soloist.

A very lovely drill, under the direction of Susan Moteschenbacher, was presented for the new Honored Queen by a group of the Bethel Daughters, who presented a beautiful bouquet of purple and white carnations to her. The

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING WEDNESDAY EVENING

Mo Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a delightful meeting Wednesday evening at the tractively home of Frances Metzger on Mill street with Irene Toder, Jane Bowker and Dorothy Winston, assisting hostesses.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Gladys Hart. The Chapter voted to contribute $25 to the Northwest Christmas Ship. Following the business session, the cultural program on Interior Decoration was presented under the leadership of Beverly Brown, who introduced as her guest speaker, Mrs. Clara Berg, from Jesse's Furniture Store. Mrs. Berg spoke on all phases of interior decorating and illustrated her talk with samples and pictures.

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Jack Wharton, social sponsor; Mrs. Clair K. Allen, program director; Lillian Du Fresno, Virginia Young, Annabelle Berg, Gladys Hart, Athalie Marcell, Birdena Norton, Myra Crook, Mary Peterson, Bonita Wyckoff, Beverly Brown, Marie Kilip, Louise Brown, Helen Saar, Betty Jane Davis, Corinne Anne Moon, Jessie Waggoner, Faye Jones, members, and Mrs. Clara Berg, a guest.

The next meeting will be January 21 at the home of Irene Toder at 1940 Union Avenue at eight o'clock in the evening.

CRUISEURS CLUB HAS DINNER MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The Cruiseurs Club met at an enjoyable seven-thirty o'clock potluck dinner Monday evening at the First Presbyterian Church parlors. Chrysanthemums were used for the decorations. Skipper W. M. Chalmers conducted the meeting. Mrs. J. P. Moteschenbacher, Mrs. Max Pennie and Mrs. Stephen Bistran were in charge of the galley.

Elliott Moteschenbacher, a guest gave a very interesting talk and illustrated with colored slides, which he had taken himself on the subject of current events presented by 19 western colleges, namely, "That a Federal World Court be Formed." Both the affirmative and negative sides were presented most ably by Mr. Moteschenbacher.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach, W. M. Chalmers, Mervin Westlund, Elliott Moteschenbacher, Bob Laws, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Laws, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Felker, Mr. and Mrs. Max Pennie, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moteschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crummett, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plummer, Janice Plummer and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bistran.

MRS. VERDUN BOUCCOCK ENTERTAINS PINOCCHLE CLUB AT DESSERT-SUPPER

Mrs. Verdun Bouccock graciously entertained her pinocchle club at a delightful seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper at her home Wednesday evening.

Violets formed a pretty centerpiece for the table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Bruce Hetrick and Mrs. Allen Cordon, guests, and Mrs. Norman Hess, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mrs. James O. Koudson, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. Ray Puckett and the hostess, Mrs. Bouccock.

Pinocchle was in play during the evening with Mrs. Puckett winning the high score and Mrs. Clark receiving the low score.

Marry at Christian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Robison.

Miss Betty Irene Clark, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark, 825 Winchester street, became the bride of Bryce Robison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross M. Rector of Orland, Calif., in a double ring ceremony performed by candlelight Saturday evening, December 8, at the First Christian Church, Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, officiating. The ceremony was in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Baskets of large white chrysanthemums flanked the archway, which was decorated with ivy and miniature wedding bells. Candles in the two candelabra were lighted by Miss Bonnie Rector, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Charles Hough.

As the guests assembled Mrs. Clarence Truon played softly on the organ and accompanied R. M. Church, who sang, "Because" and "I Promise You." With the opening strains from the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a full-length wedding gown fashioned of white marquisette with a high neckline, fitted bodice and fingertip sleeves. Her fingertip length veil edged with lace, was held in place with a Juliet cap. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and carnations on a white ribbon.

Little Ann Rector, sister of the bridegroom, dressed in a floor-length gown of pale green net and wearing a garland of pink carnations, sprinkled rose blossoms down the aisle. Randy Hough, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hough, carried the wedding rings on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Craig Dishman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue taffeta with matching guantlets and a blue net open-crown hat. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Mrs. William Adair, Mrs. Wendell Clark, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Dolores Azevedo of Tracy, Calif., were bridesmaids. The latter served in the Waves with the bride for a year and a half. The gowns of the bridesmaids were designed from yellow net with matching open crown net caps. They carried old fashioned nosegays of mixed flowers.

Dennis Robison acted as best man for his brother.

Ushers were Craig Dishman, Marion Le Donne and Wendell Clark.

The bride's mother wore a beautiful floor-length gown of aqua jersey with a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was lovely in a formal gown of pink taffeta and lace with a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the guests were treated to a reception in the church parlors. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake of white, decorated in pink and green and topped by a miniature dove of love holding two wedding rings, centered the delicate handmade white lace table cloth, a gift of the bride's mother. Serving the guests were Mrs. Robert Laurson of Corvallis and Mrs. Burdette Peterson. They wore formal gowns with corsages of white carnations.

Mrs. Charles Hough and Miss Bonnie Rector had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a Pacific brown suit fashioned with the popular cutaway jacket and complimented with eggshell accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The couple spent their honeymoon at points of interest along the Oregon coast and are now making their home at the former Marshall Pengra residence in West Roseburg.

The bride served one and a half years with the Waves and attended Hospital Corps School at Camp Moffitt, Great Lakes, Ill., and dental school at the United States Naval Hospital, Seattle. She was discharged as a dental technician and oral hygienist on July 10, 1946. She is now employed as a medical secretary at the Veterans Facility Hospital.

The bridegroom served 27 months in the U. S. Navy with 15 months active duty aboard the S. S. James Buchanan, Appleton, Victory and S. S. Molina Michael in the South Pacific theatre of operations. He was discharged May 21, 1946, at Shoemaker, Calif. He is employed by Douglas-Wood Corporation.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Shirley and Miss Delores Azevedo of Tracy, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laurson of Corvallis; Martin Robison, uncle of the bridegroom; District, Ore.; Mrs. Ross M. Rector, mother of the bridegroom; Miss Ann Rector and Miss Bonnie Rector, and Mrs. Elvin Provine of Orland, Calif.

MRS. IVAN PICKENS IS HOSTESS AT CHARMING LUNCHEON FOR CLUB

A very lovely miniature woods scene formed the attractive centerpiece for the serving table used by Mrs. Ivan Pickens Tuesday, when she entertained her bridge club at a charming one o'clock luncheon at her lovely home on Fowler street.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Paul Helweg and Mrs. Arthur Clarke, guests, and Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. D. B. Babar, Mrs. C. E. Wade, Mrs. Claire K. Allen, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. L. E. McClintock and the hostess, Mrs. Pickens.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Helweg winning the guest prize and Mrs. McClintock receiving the high score for the members.
