

Tandberg Flops As Scrapper In Bout With Maxim

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The heavyweight picture wasn't brightened by the Ole Tandberg-Joe Maxim fight in Madison Square Garden last night.

Ole can't fight and Maxim can't punch. A golden opportunity was offered to both and they both missed the cue even though the Cleveland was a split decision.

Joe Louis' regime is tottering and aging Jersey Joe Walcott is the top contender. If ever a spot was open for a young, honest-to-goodness heavyweight it was last night.

But Tandberg, the tall Swede who leaped to short-lived fame with his upset victory over Joe Baksi in Stockholm last summer, counted himself out of the picture in 30 brief fighting minutes.

He exhibited nothing but a willingness to try. He carried no runs, and if he had, he showed he wouldn't know how to use them. He was crude and slow.

As for Maxim, he was cute as ever, hooking away with both hands and scoring at close quarters. Outweighed 29 pounds, 206 to 179, Maxim handled Tandberg like a big rubber doll. He hooked him around. But few of his punches carried any steam. Tandberg was wide open and might have been belted out by a harder hitting heavy.

A crowd of 10,488 who contributed to a gross gate of $43,670 booed the bout at intervals. Much of the fight was fought at close quarters.

An ever bigger roar of disapproval went up when Judge Charles Shortell's card was read. He favored Tandberg, 5-4-1. Referee Eddie Josephs and Judge George Leecon gave it to Maxim, 7-3 each. The Associated Press scorecard gave it to Maxim, 7-2-1.

Huskies Defeat Oregon; O. S. C. Downs Cougars

(By the Associated Press)
Washington's Huskies and Oregon State's football teams perched at the top of the Coast conference Northern Division today after scoring away from home victories in basketball season openers last night.

The Huskies' 69-54 win over Oregon at Eugene set a division record of 94 personal fouls. Four Oregon and three Washington players were ejected in the rough second half via the foul route.

By contract there were only 28 penalty shots in the Oregon State-WSC curtain-raiser at Pullman, won by the Beavers, 46-31. Nineteen of these fouls were against the Cougars.

Washington and Oregon battled to a 31-31 halftime tie, and the game remained close until the Ducks began fouling out. Then Jack Nichols, Husky center who took scoring honors with 19 points, began running up the count until Washington gained a 16-point lead three minutes before the final gun.

Oregon State romped to its win over the Cougars through the aid of an unheralded guard, little Jim Catterail, and his uncanny long-shot accuracy.

Catterail, former Pendleton, Ore., high school star, broke a 14-all deadlock midway in the first half with a mid-floor bombardment that accounted for 12 points and gave the Beavers a 29-19 halftime margin. Five of his long goals were without a miss. He added a free throw in the second half to top the point-makers with 13.

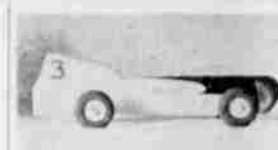

The Beavers' Cliff Crandall, northern division scoring leader with 229 points in 17 pre-season games, was held to six free throws.

The same teams meet again tonight.

BUS MERGER APPROVED
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Approval of the California Public Utilities Commission for merger of the Pacific Greyhound Lines with the Oregon, California and Nevada Stage Lines was asked by the former yesterday.

The Interstate Commerce Commission already has approved the merger, but the California commission must give its approval too before the stock can be taken over and the line operated from Reno to Klamath Falls.

TRUCK DRIVERS SAFE
Two truck drivers for the Plogel Transfer and Storage Co., who were unreported for more than 36 hours after they started a trip up the North Umpqua Road to Toketee Camp this week, reached their destination safely. M. M. Nelson, supervisor of the Umpqua National Forest reported. On their return to Roseburg, the men ran into slides so stayed at the Copee camp until the road could be cleared.

RHS Indians Trim Coquille Quintet By 54-to-30 Score

By AL WELLS
The RHS Indian basketball team walked over the Coquille Red Devils last night in their own gym with the quite convincing score of 54 to 30 in a game with few dull moments.

The Indians got off to a good start when Schneider sank two long ones from almost mid-court and Taylor followed suit with an "improbable" shot.

During the whole game it was Coquille on the defensive, with some good shots made by Johnson and Thomas.

The game was witnessed by a capacity crowd, and the smooth performance displayed by Roseburg's team holds the promise of as many spectators tonight, when the two teams come together again.

This seems to be the time and place to correct an erroneous statement made here yesterday. Roseburg has not lost every out-of-town game since they played at home Dec. 16. They have lost 4 and won two since then.

The league games this season amount to two close defeats and two comfortable wins, which look pretty encouraging.

The Varsity game tonight will follow the preliminary Junior Varsity game, between Glide varsity and Roseburg Junior varsity, at 6:20. The tip-off of the main event will be at 7:45.

The Indians counted 16 out of 12 free throws last night; the Red Devils, 8 of 19.

THE LINEUPS:
Roseburg: P. 10, Johnson; Hubbard, 11; F. 10, Clark; Black, 2; G. 10, Pierce; Taylor, 14; S. 10, Need; Schneider, 8.
Substitutes: Roseburg—Trotter, 2; Davidson, 4; Feldkamp, 3; Neufeld, 1; Coen, 2; Coquille—Belmore, Timmons, 2; Bell, Jenkins, Richardson, Gilkey, Referee, Beggs, umpire, Toman.

Wrestling Card Tonight to See 7 Matmen in Action

The Roseburg Armory will be the scene tonight of one of the most colorful and hectic wrestling events of the winter season—a seven-man, six-match, single-elimination tournament to determine the logical contender for the Pacific coast junior heavyweight championship.

At 8:30 P. M., the seven matmen will enter the ring to draw for opponents. Three first-round matches will follow, the three winners and the lucky matman drawing the bye will follow in two semi-final bouts. The sixth and final will be the feature—giving the winner a $200 purse, a permanent trophy and the right to meet Frank Stojack, new champion, here in the near future.

All bouts will be 15-minute affairs, with three ringside judges making the decision if no falls are scored. Elton Owen will referee all matches.

Principals include Joe Lynam, Al Williams, Tex Hager, Jack O'Reilly, George Dussette, Sammy "The Devil" Cohen, and George Curtis, a newcomer from Mississippi who is listed as the Southern titleholder. All are championship caliber and either still hold or are ex-holders of coveted mat crowns.

secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Roseburg has been chosen as the 10th city to be featured in the "Salute to Oregon Cities" series being sponsored by The Oregonian. The salute programs are designed to tell the story of the state on a nation-wide basis.

The Chamber of Commerce has been informed, Hickerson said, that George Griffiths, manager of The Oregonian's promotion and research department; Miss Helen Alexieva of KGW, and Ted Bushman, advertising agency executive, will visit Roseburg to gather background material for the publicity.

While here, Griffiths will address civic and community leaders at a forum meeting Jan. 19, and will explain in detail the salute program, its purposes and potential value to Roseburg.

Advance information indicates that plans are under way for a full-page advertisement which will appear in Newsweek magazine, telling its more than 1,700,000 readers of the advantages and resources of the Roseburg area.

A feature story on the city will also appear in the magazine section of the Sunday Oregonian in February. Miss Alexieva will gather material for a special radio show saluting Roseburg.

The Oregonian believes that by spotlighting the advantages of Oregon communities on a national scale, the state—and in turn, the paper—will benefit greatly. On this premise, The Oregonian assumes all expense for the salute campaign, eliminating any cost to Roseburg, Hickerson said.

Delegates to the Oregon Highway 99 Association meeting in Roseburg that week, will also attend the Chamber of Commerce forum Jan. 19, Hickerson said.
