Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Baird.

Miss Betty Louise Jones, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Jones, 308 Chestnut street, Roseburg, became the bride of Elmer C. Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don K. Baird of Oakland, at an impressive ceremony at five o'clock Friday evening January 9, at the parsonage of the Free Methodist Church of Calapooia. Rev. E. J. Howell read the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Baird and Mrs. Georgia Howell were witnesses.

The bride was lovely in a soft grey two-piece suit with black accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid.

Following a short honeymoon to coastal points, the couple returned to Oakland to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and was later employed by J. C. Penney Company. The bridegroom attended high school at Sutherlin and served two and a half years with the 6th Marine Division.

Marry at Holiday Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Vedder.

Miss Edith Lorraine (Peggy) Hendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrick of Riddle, became the bride of Frederick J. Vedder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vedder of Myrtle Creek, at eight-thirty o'clock the evening of December 24 at the Vedder home in Myrtle Creek. Rev. Mr. Groff of Riddle and Rev. Mr. Hawthorne of Myrtle Creek performed the impressive nuptials by candlelight in the presence of relatives of the couple.

White chrysanthemums with greenery in large baskets flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles formed the lovely setting for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a gray dressmaker suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid and she carried a white prayer book.

Miss Myrtle Lee Hendrick, maid of honor for her sister and wore a suit of gray with matching accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and rosebuds. Jimmy Briggs acted as best man and presided the ceremony. Mae Bell Hendrick, lighted the candles.

A reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake was cut and served.

The couple will make their home in Riddle, where the bridegroom is associated in business with his parents.

Marry on Saturday, January 17

Picture by Paul Jenkins

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Oswald, Jr.

Miss Ruth Mary Vandroec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Vandroec of Fargo, N. D., became the bride of Leonard John Oswald, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Oswald, Jr., of Eugene, at an impressive ceremony at eight-thirty o'clock Saturday morning, January 17, in the chapel at Mercy hospital with Father Urban Iordan officiating.

The chapel was decorated with large arrangements of calla lilies. Preceding the nuptial mass, the chapel choir sang, "Ave Maria."

The bride, given in marriage by Paul Jenkins, was very lovely in a wedding gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline outlined with seed-pearl embroidery, long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist; form fitting bodice and full-length train. Her finger-toe veil of illusion was edged in lace and was held in place by a Juliet cap of seed-pearls. She carried a white prayer book lined with mother of pearl and topped by a large white orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

The bridesmaid, Miss Patricia and Miss Joan Oswald, sisters of the bridegroom, wore pink and yellow motif taffeta gowns and matching Dutch caps. They carried bouquets of rosebuds arranged with lilies and streamers of satin ribbons.

Patty Struckman, in a floor-length dress of pink marquisette trimmed in blue and wearing a Dutch cap, was ring bearer and Billy Struckman acted as train bearer. William Struckman, Sr., was best man.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black suit with black accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. A wedding breakfast followed at Carl's Haven. The table was centered with a beautifully decorated and tiered cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Tall lighted tapers and tiny silver-bridal favors completed the setting. The cake was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mrs. L. J. Oswald, Sr.

Covers were placed for the bride and bridegroom and the former's father, Anton Vandroec of Fargo, N. D., the bridegroom's family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Oswald, Sr., and Miss Joan and Miss Patricia Oswald, Mr. and Mrs. G. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Powers and daughters, Judy and Ann; Mr. and Mrs. William Struckman and children, Patty, Billy and Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Father Iordan.

Following a honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Roseburg until March, when they will go to Los Angeles, where Mr. Oswald will attend school for a year.

The bride is employed as secretary at Mercy hospital and the bridegroom is employed by the Roseburg Funeral Home.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Large Meeting Tuesday Afternoon

The largest meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club held since the club opened in the fall was enjoyed Tuesday afternoon at the Armory with Mrs. Roy O. Young as the guest speaker. Mrs. Young presented an intensely interesting talk on the need of a county hospital and of the tentative committee, of which she is a member.

Mrs. George E. Houck, president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. R. E. Crawford, chaplain, gave the invocation, and Mrs. Lester Nielsen, music chairman, presented Mrs. Morris H. Roach, who delighted the group by playing two lovely violin numbers, accompanied by Mrs. S. A. Warg.

Committee reports were presented by all club chairmen.

Plans were completed for the scholarship and fellowship loan tea, honoring Ise Dorothea Raacke from Brazil, exchange student at O. S. C., to be held January 31 from 2:30 to 5:30 at the H. C. Berg home in Laurelwood. Both men and women are invited and especially all club women throughout the county are urged to attend. Senior and Junior Woman's Club members will precede the tea with a 12:15 no-hostess luncheon honoring Miss Raacke at Carl's Haven. Reservations must be made by Wednesday, January 28, by calling Mrs. Tauscher at 648-L or Mrs. Paul S. Elliott 538-L.

Mrs. C. W. Dishman was hostess of the tea committee and was assisted by Mrs. Earl M. Biele, Mrs. Jessie Dorville, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. Vernon Keel, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. C. E. Marks and Mrs. John Travis.

Attending the affair were Mrs. George E. Houck, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Lester Nielsen, Mrs. Bert Wells, Mrs. E. J. Sullivan, Mrs. C. W. Dishman, Mrs. W. V. Schroeder, Mrs. L. L. Powers, Mrs. P. J.
