Miss Helen Casey Is Guest Speaker For Junior Woman's Club

Miss Helen Casey.

Miss Helen Casey was guest speaker for the Junior Woman's Club seven-thirty o'clock potluck dinner at the Armory Monday evening, at which time she very charmingly gave a travelogue on her recent two-months trip to Panama, Guatemala and Mexico. She told of her experiences on the 15-day trip by ship from Portland to Panama, with two-day stopovers in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

While in Panama, she was the guest of Captain Raymond Bell, who is a cousin, and his wife and their daughter, Judy. Captain Bell, a nephew of Miss Minnie Bell of Roseburg, is stationed at the U. S. Army Post at Panama. With Mrs. Bell, Miss Casey enjoyed a sight-seeing trip to Guatemala. She showed numerous articles, which she had purchased on the trip, which proved of much interest and enjoyment to the group. She returned via plane, stopping in Mexico City, where she attended a bull fight and enjoyed numerous excursions to points of interest. From Mexico, she again took the plane for Los Angeles, where she boarded the train for Roseburg, reaching her home in time for Christmas.

At the conclusion of her talk, Miss Annaloris Ward played "South American musical numbers as piano solos.

Adding greatly to the evening's entertainment were the dance numbers presented by pupils of Mrs. Paul Jenkins from the Eula Rhodes School of Ballet, which included: "Dance of the Reed Flutes," from the Nutcracker Suite by Hailie Lou Bond, Lucinda Randall and Marlene Emmitt; "Winter Wonderland," solo ballet by Joan Rutter and Polka number by Hailie Lou Bond, Lucinda Randall, Marlene Emmitt, Carol Lee Rutherford and Pat Tucker. Miss Virginia Young very ably accompanied the dance numbers.

Miss June Clayton was chairman of the hostess committee for the potluck dinner and entertainment and was assisted by Miss Ethel Van Voorst, Miss Jean Turner and Mrs. Robert Elliott.

A collection was taken for the purchase of a new book for the Roseburg Public Library. A fine report was presented on the collection taken for the County Home project.
