The executive committee will be in charge of buying silverware, cups and plates for the grange's new hall.

Sutherland

George Polage of Hinkle Creek, returned home Sunday from a visit to St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Polage's mother accompanied him back to Oregon and will make her home with her son and daughter-in-law.

The Rev. Mr. Kleinfeldt attended a "Preachers Parliament" in Eugene last week. He then left for Bend to spend the remainder of the week with his wife and family. Mrs. Kleinfeldt, who recently underwent a major operation at a hospital in Bend, was able to leave the hospital to go to the home of Mr. Kleinfeldt's sister and brother-in-law, who have been keeping their children, Gaylen and Sherrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Wood, of Hinkle Creek, who have been visiting their son, Bob, and other relatives in Los Angeles, for the past month, returned home Monday. They reported quite a change in temperature for them, as they were really "too warm" in L.A. and were rapidly becoming "too cold" here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mae Landers and family from Coos Bay, have been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Blaine McCormack. Mrs. Landers is remembered here as "Mickey" Fenton. They wish to locate in Sutherland, as Mr. Landers is employed in the lumber industry.

Dollar Bus Lines Buy O. K. Sought

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27—(AP)—American Bus Lines, Inc., will operate the Dollar Bus Lines if the U. S. District Court, a federal division and an Oregon state agency approves.

Dollar lines operate from San Francisco to Portland, Ore., with intrastate rights in Oregon between Portland and Eugene. It was purchased yesterday by American for $26,000 at an open sale.

Sale of Dollar Lines was ordered by the U. S. District Court on complaint of the federal anti-trust division that it was being run as a "second rate service." Named in the complaint were Pacific Greyhound Lines, Greyhound Corp., Southern Pacific Co., Interstate Transit Lines, Interstate Transit Lines, Inc., and Union Pacific Stages, Inc.

The purchase by American is subject to confirmation by the Federal Court and approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Oregon Public Utilities Commission.

American, which operates from New York, Philadelphia and Washington to San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco, recently sought unsuccessfully to extend its service from San Diego to the California-Oregon state line via U. S. 101.
