GLENN LARSEN AND BARBARA LEE SMITH MARRY, JANUARY 31

The Herman Larson residence of Oakland was the scene of an attractive wedding January 31st at eight o'clock in the evening, when the Larson's son, Glenn A. Larson, was united in marriage to Barbara Lee Smith, also of Oakland. Rev. Holland Thompson, a friend of the Larsons from boyhood, performed the ceremony. His daughter, Miss Carolyn, gave an arrangement on the harp of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and also played and sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was lovely in a Navy blue dress with pointed collar. The wedding was outlined with white tulle. Her corsage was a beautiful orchid. Mildred Smith, sister of the bride, and Jabe Larson, brother of the bridegroom, were attendants.

A wedding reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and served. The couple will reside in Sutherlin, until their apartment in Roseburg is completed. The bridegroom served two and a half years with the U. S. army overseas and is now employed by the Chevrolet garage in Roseburg.
