er to run the country as it thinks the country ought to be run. Again we face problems—differing from 1860's, but in their way as grave and far-reaching.

If, this year, its leadership is sincere and genuine and patriotic, the Republican party can't lose.

If all it can do is to piddle around with peanut politics, it can't win.

THE Soviet (Russian) weekly, the News Times says: "The drop in commodity prices in the United States is one of the symptoms of growing economic CRISIS." All Soviet newspapers are playing heavily the news of our market break.

That is wishful thinking.

Russia is staking her hope of a communist world on a crack-up in the free economy of the United States. Her leaders are smart enough to know they cannot compete with an America that stays strong and healthy.

DO we face a crack-up?

Senator Taft (who, whether you like him or not, is one of our clearest thinkers) said in St. Paul the other night:

"I do not believe faltering commodity prices point toward any general depression. . . . We may now look forward to a STRAIGHTENING OUT of the curve of inflation. . . . I see no reason to think that this drop will bring a depression or interfere with full employment unless it becomes much more serious than it now appears."

HERE is what has happened so far:

The upward march of prices has been checked. Prices marching steadily upward spell inflation in letters a foot high. Unchecked, uncontrolled, unfettered inflation can end only in a sickening crash.

If we take the right road from here, we can AVOID calamity and go on to new heights of achievement.

WHAT is the right road?

The map is plain.

We can arrive at our hoped-for destination, sound, whole and happy, if we turn in and produce at our full capacity at prices that people can afford to pay.

Stabilized prices. Prices and costs that make it possible for us to look forward into the future and make plans.

Prep Basketball Upsets Are Few

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Eugene spilled Corvallis, 39-37, in a Big Six League game that eliminated Corvallis from title consideration, but is was a non-district upset.

Eugene is already eliminated from the District 6 race, but Corvallis has a chance to get into the district 7 playoffs. Albany is a half-step ahead, however, and added to its win string with a 48-37 district win over Lebanon. Newport in the Western Division of the District continued unbeaten with a 40-29 victory over Taft.

Newberg, paced by Bill Geavin with 22 points, looked stronger than ever in clinching at least a tie for the Tualatin-Yamhill Valley league title. Newberg, favorite for the district 8 crown downed West Linn, favored in District 12, 63-55.

High - scoring performances were common. Center Servousek of St. Helens, the favored team in District 14, ran up 24 points as his quintet defeated Parkrose, 56-35. Rainer, still with chance to overtake St. Helens, was led by Bob Ball's 22 points in vanquishing Seaside, 54-29.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14—(AP)—The New York State Athletic Commission yesterday suspended boxer Jake LaMotta until June 21 and fined him $1,000 for having concealed facts of his physical condition before he was stopped by Billy Fox of Philadelphia on Nov. 14 at Madison Square Garden.

LaMotta has been under "temporary suspension" ever since Nov. 21, when he admitted to the Commission that he went into the Fox fight with an injured side and against the advice of his physician.

Oregon Ducks Win Uphill Tilt With Idaho Basketeers

EUGENE, ORE., Feb. 14—(AP)—The Oregon ducks grabbed a narrow margin in the closing minutes last night and clung to it to scrape out a 43-41 victory over the Idaho Vandals in a Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference game.

The Vandals had led all the way until the last nine minutes of the game. Controlling the ball throughout the first half and shooting only when chances were good, they had a comfortable 27-20 lead at halftime.

Guard Reedy Berg dropped in a free throw in the last minute of the game to give Oregon a 36-35 lead. The Ducks still had the same narrow lead at 41-40 with three minutes to go and then guard Stan Williamson of the Ducks potted a short set shot to boost the margin to 43-40.

As Oregon tried to stall, John Evans converted a free toss for Idaho 1½ minutes from the end to make it 43-41. With 45 seconds to go, Idaho broke up the Oregon stall and forward Preston Brimhall ran in for Idaho's last-chance hook shot. Dick Wilkins blocked the toss that could have tied the game.

A tightening-up of Oregon defense in the last half gave the Ducks their victory. They held Idaho scoreless in the first five minutes of the second half.

Brimhall of Idaho led the scoring with 12 points. The Oregon leaders were Williamson, Wilkins and Bob Lavoy, each with eight.

The same teams play here again tonight in the only Northern Division game on the schedule.

Headlining the show will be a non-title match between Frankie Stojack, coast junior heavyweight titleholder from Tacoma, and Georges Dusette, the popular French-Canadian with the powerful biceps and shouiders. Both are fundamentally scientific grapplers and fans are promised one of the greatest matches in local mat history.

Elton Owen will referee all three bouts.

Sammons Rose From Newsboy To Civic Leadership

E. C. Sammons, who will address the annual banquet of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce next Thursday, has had a colorful career in business, industry, and banking, according to a news release issued by the chamber today.

Since March, 1945, he has been president of the United States National Bank, Oregon's largest financial institution, and one of the out standing banks of the nation.

From newsboy and department store cash boy, he became office boy for one of Portland's newspapers. Soon he was reporting for the Oregonian. After nine years of newspaper work, he joined the staff of the old Lumbermen's National Bank.

In 1917 he entered the armed services, seeing action overseas where he was made lieutenant-colonel on the field of battle.

World War I, over, Sammons returned to Portland and joined the staff of the United States National Bank, which had taken over the Lumbermen's. He was a vice-president when he left the U. S. National in 1928, to become vice president and director of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Co.

Civic Record Notable.

Samon's contributions to civic activity have been as outstanding as has his business career. In 1933 he was chosen Portland's First Citizen, in recognition of his work as Rose Festival chairman, Community Chest chairman, and member of the State Board of Higher Education, which he served from 1929 to 1944. He received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Oregon State College in June, 1946.

His most outstanding civic accomplishment was the brilliant record he made as chairman of the Oregon War Finance Committee. He and Oregon received nationwide recognition for this state's War Bond Drive victories.

During the war he also served as president of Oregon War Industries, a group of companies banded together to produce materials for winning the war. He is a member of Portland's Labor-Management Committee and of other civic groups working for the betterment of the State of Oregon.

Reservations for the banquet must be made with the Chamber of Commerce office by Tuesday at 5 p. m.
