MARRY AT DOUBLE RING CEREMONY

Miss Helen Catherine Wilhelm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilhelm, of Myrtle Creek, became the bride of Jerry Douglas Bouds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond V. Bouds, also of Myrtle Creek, Sunday, January 25, at the First Christian Church in Roseburg. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of more than 100 relatives and friends.

The church decorations were arranged by The Fern Florists. Two huge baskets filled with flowers flanked the altar floral arrangement, while the background was formed by tall candles holding white candles. The candles were lighted by the ushers, William Hamel of Portland and Ronald Childers of Myrtle Creek, a cousin of the bridegroom.

As the guests assembled Mrs. Clarence Trued played softly on the organ and accompanied Mrs. Jeane Waggoner, who sang, "Near You" and "Because." Mrs. Trued also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a suit of winter white wool with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of three white orchids. Miss Betty Miles of Portland, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a suit of soft gray with black accessories and a corsage of deep pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a winter white suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and the bridegroom's mother wore a moss green suit with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Donald Smith of Myrtle Creek, boyhood friend of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception followed in the church basement. Huge bouquets of mixed flowers were used for decorations. The bride's table was centered with the beautiful tiered wedding cake, topped by a wedding bell. The cake was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Earl Decker with Mrs. Eugene McAnany, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ruth Maris presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Paul Larson and Mrs. Earl March, aunt of the bridegroom, had charge of the gift table. Miss Louise Maris had charge of the guest book. The cake was cut with a sterling silver server, a gift from the Dr. Bruce Detrick.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Emily McAnany, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. V. Bouds, both of Myrtle Creek, were present for the ceremony and reception. Out-of-town guests present included the bridegroom's maternal grandfather, A. C. Miles of Oakland, Calif.; Larry Kemp, William Hamel and Betty Miles, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Carey and son, Jerry, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Springfield, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marsh of Donithan, Neb., uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Following a honeymoon to points south, the couple returned to Myrtle Creek to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Edison High School at San Antonio, Tex. The bridegroom has resided near Myrtle Creek all of his life. He was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School and attended business college in Portland, after which he spent six years in the U. S. Navy as a radioman. He is now employed in the lumber industry at Dillard.
