INTER-SE STUDY CLUB HAS MEETING TUESDAY

The Inter-Se Study Club met at a charming dinner-luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Paul Geddes on East Lane street. An attractive crystal arrangement graced the table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Jack Ulrich, Mrs. Bruce Melles, Mrs. E. Lindell, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. Paul Elliott, Mrs. W. Howard Pattison and the hostess, Mrs. Geddes.

An exceptionally interesting and comprehensive program on the topic, "The Reformation," re-early protestant movement, re-actions and background was given by Mrs. E. Lindell.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, February 24, at a one-fifteen o'clock dinner-luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Lindell on Claire street with Mrs. Bruce Melles in charge of the program.

VALENTINE PARTY HELD BY GROUP

The Camp Fire girls of Fulton School held a Valentine party at the school Friday. Boys were invited as guests and those attending wore comic Valentine costumes with Arlene Redmond winning the first prize for the girls and Barbara Marsh winning second prize. Brian Booth won first prize for the boys and Melvin Arnold won second prize. Lovely refreshments were served following a social hour of games.

CATHOLIC GIRLS ORGANIZE TEEN-AGE SORORITY MONDAY

Teen-age girls of the Catholic Church met Monday night at the E. L. Tauscher home on Riverside Drive in Laurelhurst to organize a sorority. Officers elected included: Sally Oilar, president; Betty Lou Tauscher, vice president; and Ethel Mae Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

The group will meet March 2 at 7:30 p. m. at the Tauscher home at 1454 Riverside Drive. A name for the organization will be decided on at that time. All teen-age girls of the Catholic church are invited.

LADY LIONS TO SPONSOR DINNER SATURDAY NIGHT

The Lady Lions have arranged a social evening and seven o'clock potluck dinner for Saturday night, February 21, to be held at the I. O. O. F. hall. Committees have completed arrangements for the affair and all members are urged to be present.

GLENGARY YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE CLUB

The young people of the Glengary community met at the schoolhouse Friday night to organize a 4-H club. Mavis Hasbargen acted as temporary chairman. Officers were elected as follows: president, Grace Hasbargen; vice-president, Arthur McGehey; secretary, Maxine Moffitt; treasurer, Lee Roy Moffitt; and reporter, Clara Hasbargen. Dues will be five cents per meeting and members unable to attend will be fined ten cents. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGehey and Mavis Hasbargen will act as leaders.

Joan and Arthur McGehey were appointed as lunch committee chairmen and Maxine Moffitt and Shirley White will act as program chairmen. Members are asked to bring club name suggestions to the next meeting to be held March 5.

Discussion of 4-H club work in general was followed by a social hour and refreshments.

THIMBLE CLUB HAS LUNCHEON MEETING

Mrs. W. E. Moran graciously entertained the members of Woodcraft Thimble Club Monday at her home on Miller street, taking the place of Mrs. G. W. Crutcher who was unable to serve on that day on account of illness.

A delicious 1:30 potluck luncheon was served at a table decorated with a beautifully decorated birthday cake baked by Mrs. Willis Myers and presented to Mrs. Harold Bellows.

Roll-call topics were read and the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Henry Eskline. It was voted to discontinue Polyantha gifts this year. Secret Pal gifts were exchanged and the names revealed, after which Valentines were exchanged.

Those present were Mrs. Victor Bean and children, guests, and the following members: Mrs. L. Hooper, Mrs. Harry Lohr, Mrs. B. W. Taylor, Mrs. J. D. Worthington, Mrs. M. B. Germond, Mrs. Harold Bellows, Mrs. Alfred Neal, Mrs. Willis Myers, Mrs. J. T. Miller, Mrs. A. D. Hawn, Mrs. Paul Beaver, Mrs. Ted Insley, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Henry Eskline and the hostess, Mrs. Moran and son, Mickle.

The game prize was won by Mrs. Germond.

The club will meet February 23 at a 1:30 potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. B. W. Taylor, 510 South Jackson street.

AUXILIARY SEWING CLUB MEETING HELD

The American Legion Auxiliary Sewing Club met Feb. 13th at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman for an all-day sewing session. A potluck luncheon was served at noon. The time was spent in cutting and sewing children's pajamas; tying two comforters and sewing baby quilt tops. The completed work is turned over to Mrs. W. J. Oimscheid.

DAYS CREEK HOME EXTENSION UNIT MEETS

"Pressure Saucepans and Their Uses" was the project carried out by the Days Creek Home Extension Unit Thursday at Lavadour Hall, Days Creek.

Mrs. Dorothea Boling, Douglas County Extension leader, gave a short talk on the different types of saucepans and showed six different kinds to the members with instructions on how to use each of them. The members were paired off and every two were given a dish to prepare using the saucepan. A buffet luncheon followed.

Mrs. Virginia Martin entertained the group with a song, after which Mrs. W. Frank Brown, associate chairman of the unit, conducted the business session. It was decided to have as the unit's project for the April 27 Home-maker's Day in Roseburg, examples of "Good Taste in Clothes," taken from an earlier project of the unit.

Boling reminded the group that all women of the community are welcome to attend these Unit meetings and asked each person present to bring a new member to the March 11 meeting to be held in Canyonville at 1:30 o'clock at the Community building. The topic will be "Care of the Feet."

Members present were Mrs. Albert Brown, Mrs. William F. Brown, Mrs. W. Frank Brown, Mrs. Ross Hodgkinson, Mrs. Archie Ferguson, Mrs. Alice Poole, Mrs. Carl C. Hill, Mrs. Stella Dodge, Mrs. Harold Burgen, Mrs. Gladys Martin, Mrs. Dorothy Bryant, Mrs. Alice Bloomer and Miss Marion Jambura.

JOLLY CIRCLE CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Members of the Jolly Circle Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George James. New officers were elected and Valentines were exchanged, after which the names of mystery sisters were revealed.

Faint refreshments were served by Mrs. James to: Mrs. Virgil Lynn, Mrs. Ralph St. Peter, Mrs. Freeman Williams, Mrs. Floyd Simpson, Miss Clara Schulenz, Mrs. Arthur Hillman, Mrs. Morrell, Mrs. Verney Sanders, and Mrs. Millard Manning.

The next meeting will be February 25 at the home of Mrs. Virgil Lynn.

EVERGREEN JUVENILE GRANGE HAS MEETING

Evergreen juvenile Grange met Friday night at the hall with Stanley Harryman, master, in charge. Two applications for membership were read. The lecturer's program was in charge of the Lecturer, Sharon Bloom. The Subordinate Grange invited the group to attend its program. Refreshments were served later in the evening. The next meeting will be February 27.

VISITORS HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Daffodils and greenery decorated the luncheon table used by Mrs. Calvin Baird Wednesday at her apartment in the Kohlhagen, when she entertained for the Dutch Goerings of Nampa, Ida., Miss Garfield and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Medford. Mrs. Smith is Mrs. Baird's sister and has been spending the last week visiting here. The Goerings are both college students at Nampa.
