

Gaudily Arrayed Jap "Hero" Only Unemployed Cook

TOKYO, Feb. 21.—(AP)—A Japanese in a U. S. Army uniform—decorated like a Christmas tree—stepped grandly off a train yesterday.

He had startled fellow passengers with tales of weird flights in a rocket ship at the Kanoya air base. He was, he said with an elegant flourish, Capt. Robert Jones—the Army's most daring test pilot.

He was dressed for the part. Loops of gold braid adorned both shoulders. Air Force service patches blossomed on his sleeves. Two rows of vari-colored ribbons illuminated his chest. Upon his jaunty cap were two circles of officer's braid and silver bars.

But a U. S. Army Chaplain, A. D. Mann, lifted an eye brow and telephoned ahead. Awaiting the super pilot's triumphant arrival were two frowning MPs.

They booked him for impersonating an officer.

The rocket pilot extraordinary admitted then that he was Takeshi Takeshima—just an unemployed cook's helper from the Itami air base, near Osaka.

Bear meat is a source of trichinosis and should be thoroughly cooked before eating, according to California game authorities.

Girls' Bowling Title Decided at Myrtle Creek

Myrtle Creek Building Supply girls won the team championship in the girls' bowling league Tuesday night. They won over the Medical Arts Laboratory women by one pin, 2502 to 2501. Rainbow Grill came in third with 2500. The Myrtle Creek team will receive the trophy given by the bowling alley. They will bowl their double and singles championship matches Sunday afternoon.

before it really got going. A MacArthur man, meanwhile, announced in Chicago that he is going to establish a national headquarters in Washington for backers of the general.

The Chicagoan is Warren Wright, banker and former Illinois state treasurer.

"The objective of me and my friends," he said, "is to create a popular demand for General MacArthur that will compel the Republican national convention to nominate him this summer."

Man Confesses Killing Woman in Hotel Room

ST. HELENS, Ore., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Police said today that Charles Noble Camp, 26, had confessed the slaying of Mrs. Zoe Carlson, 54, at Everett, Wash. District Attorney W. W. Dillard said Camp signed a detailed statement on the strangulation of the woman.

The body of the widow, married five times, was found in an Everett hotel Wednesday. Dillard said Camp admitted he picked up the woman in a tavern Tuesday and registered with her as a married couple at the hotel. Camp confessed strangling her after she protested his advances in the room, Dillard said.

With the statement, "I think I killed a woman in Washington," Camp gave himself up to a Scappoose, Ore., minister Thursday.
