AZALEA—Mr. and Mrs. James Croff, their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Croff and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Croff spent Saturday evening, Feb. 14, celebrating the 31st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Croff and the birthday of Lester M. Croff.

SUTHERLIN GRANGE HOLDS MEETING
SUTHERLIN—Sutherland Grange met at the hall Wednesday, Feb. 23, at eight o'clock. Fred Brauninger, master, presided, with twenty-two members and four visitors present.

Five applications were voted upon and accepted as new members. Eleven new applications were received and investigating committees were appointed. Rosemarie and Velvie Jones, Jr., were given the third and fourth degree obligation.

A report was given by the agriculture chairman, Charles Wahl, pertaining to sprays, seed potatoes and agriculture extension service work.

Home economics chairman, Mrs. Phreda Wahl, announced a Home Economics Club had been organized and invited all the grange women to join. The next club meeting will be at the hall March 1st, at 2 P. M.

At the next grange meeting February 25th, a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner will be held. The committee includes: Mrs. Ellen Leisenger, Mrs. Velma Brauninger and Mrs. Alice Swindler.

An announcement was made that the grange conference, which was to have been February 18th at Riversdale, has been postponed until March 3rd. A letter was read by the master stating that news are no longer sent abroad as a relief food.

A motion was made and seconded that Sutherland Grange go on record favoring the including of peas as a relief food to be sent abroad. The secretary was asked to send a letter to the proper authorities to that effect.

A special election was held to elect an assistant steward and Velvie Jones, Jr., was elected to fill the office for the year.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Trozelle of the Riversdale Grange. Each gave a short interesting talk.

The lecturer's program directed by Mrs. Stella French, lecturer program, included the following: How well we know our states by naming the capitals; a game—Seasons of the year. Song—The Quilting Party. Lecturer, Marjorie Sheets, was reported as being ill.
