Classes Set For Aides to Patients At Vets Hospital

Classes for persons who desire to assist patients at the Roseburg Veterans Hospital will be held March 9, 10, and 11, between 1 and 4 in the afternoon and 7 and 9 in the evening, under sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary.

"It is the earnest desire of the American Legion to give the best possible to the patients at the hospital, who have given so much for us," said Mrs. Violet C. Hannan, Legion hospital worker.

Volunteers are needed to read to the veterans, be good listeners, write letters, and to help with hobbies they may be interested in. Men as well as women are wanted for the volunteer program.

On March 11, Mrs. Charles Gunn, instructor for the American Legion Auxiliary Schools, will explain the Legion's part in the program for veterans' hospitals. She recently returned from Des Moines, Ia., where a national school for instructors was held.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Hannan at telephone 731, extension 36 or at her home telephone, 606-L.
