Marry on Valentine Day

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Fent.

Miss Klaudea Henry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henry of Roseburg, became the bride of Roy L. Fent, of the U. S. Navy, son of Park Fent of Grand Island, Neb., and Mrs. Dave Chaney of Denver, Colo., Saturday evening, February 14, at eight o'clock at the Methodist Church with Rev. W. A. MacArthur performing the impressive double ring ceremony.

White stock and white tulips in large silver containers flanked by candelabra holding white cathedral candles, decorated the altar. Mrs. Paul Groden, organist, played softly as the guests assembled and accompanied R. M. Church, who sang "Through the Years" and "Because." The candles were lighted by Gene Henry, brother of the bride, and her cousin, Raymond Dupuis, of Oswego.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a full train and leg-of-mutton sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a tangle of ruching. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid.

Mrs. Richard Russell was matron of honor and wore a gown of pale blue crepe. She carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and hyacinths. Darlene Miller, junior bridesmaid, wore a floor-length gown of blue and carried a colonial bouquet. Mrs. James Sims of Roseburg and Miss Donna Primrose of Eugene gown in pink formal and carrying matching colonial bouquets, were bridesmaids. Richard Russell was best man and James Sims and Bob Simonsen were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black dress with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's lace-covered table was centered with a crystal bowl of white tulips with crystal holders containing white tapers. The tiered cake was topped by a heart and cut by the

DICKIE GOERGEN IS HONORED ON SEVENTH BIRTHDAY AT DINNER

Dickie Goergen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goergen, celebrated his seventh birthday at a delightful dinner party at the home of his parents Monday. The party was held from four to seven o'clock.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Dickie. Games were played and prizes were awarded to the winners. At six o'clock, a lovely dinner was served to the twelve guests at a table centered with a beautiful birthday cake decorated with seven blue candles in tiny blue holders. Pink, blue and yellow colors formed the color scheme.

Covers were placed for Dickie, guest of honor, and Scotty Crenshaw, Nancy and Gayle Groshen, Carl Johnson, Mary and Mickey Weaver, Myron Mead, Andy Fetherly, Bill Mead and Billy and Patsy Goergen. The dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Goergen.

EULA RHODEN SCHOOL OF BALLET PLANS FALL CONCERT AND ACTIVITIES

Eula Rhoden School of Ballet, located in the L. O. O. F. hall, will present its annual fall ballet concert, according to an announcement by Mrs. Rhoden and Miss Violet Cole.

The school is planning a series of recitals from out of town during the summer months.

Mrs. Paul Jenkins, who has been teaching at the studio the last three months, now is in charge of the pre-school children dance studio.

A guest instructor will be added to the school for a special summer course.

Two new ballroom classes have recently been started as a result of so much demand for ballroom instruction. A class for High School students and another class for adults have been formed.

Mrs. Rhoden will hold registration for new pupils at the studio Monday, March 1.

W. C. T. U. HAS MEETING AT ARMORY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Roseburg met Wednesday at the armory for a program in commemoration of a Frances Willard, founder of the organization. Accounts of her childhood, womanhood and devotion to the cause of purity and righteousness were presented.

Her three famous words, "Abstain, educate and organize," still mark the lines carried out by the organization. All Christian women are invited to cooperate in meetings held the fourth Wednesday of every month at 2 o'clock at the armory.

There were 90 in attendance. Dancing was enjoyed during the social hour.

STUDY CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

YONCALLA—One of the outstanding meetings of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club was held Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church, honoring "Founder's Day." A delicious dessert-luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. The long tables were artistically decorated with the national colors predominating. Red, white and blue lighted tapers formed the centerpiece, with a long and hatched in miniature calling attention to the birthday of the first president, George Washington.

Following the luncheon, guests were ushered into the newly decorated auditorium of the church, where a very fine program was given. Mrs. Dore Kingery wore a period dress of pioneer days. The program opened by the singing of the club's song for the year, "Oregon My Oregon." Mrs. Edgar Richard had charge of the devotions, followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Fred Hunt and Mrs. Kinney of Drain. Group singing of "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "America" was followed by an original poem by Mrs. John Kruse, who was dressed in the wedding dress of the late Mrs. Cutlack, mother of Bert, Harry and Percy Cutlack, and made by a famous English seamstress in the late '60s. Mrs. Maud Cowles of Drain gave a very interesting talk on "I Heard America Sing," quoting poems and songs sung by Wm. Shakespeare up to the present day. Mrs. Hugh Warner gave a very interesting talk on "Early Pioneer Poets of Oregon."

Those present included Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston, president of the club, Mrs. Paul Allen, Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Jennie Lasswell, Mrs. Edgar Richards, Mrs. John Kruse, Mrs. Dan Wright, Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. Terry Wise, Mrs. Art Rychard, Mrs. Dore Kingery, Mrs. Hugh Warner, Mrs. Dan Brace, Mrs. Bernice Mideke, The Drain Study Club and a few local ladies were guests.
