Welfare Position Exams Remain On Continuous Basis

The State Civil Service Commission announced today that continuous examinations for case-work positions with the State Public Welfare Commission are being given in Portland and Salem.

College graduates or those with two years of college and two years of experience in a related public service field are urged to apply. The beginning salary $165 a month is available to successful applicants, who can also look forward to consideration for salary increases at regular intervals. Promotional opportunities in the casework, supervisory and administrative fields exist so that beginning caseworkers who show promise can plan an attractive career in public welfare. Appointment possibilities exist in most of the larger communities of Oregon.

Persons who are interested should apply immediately to the Portland office of the State Civil Service Commission, 614 Mead Building, or the Salem office, 444 Center street.

MOTORIST CITED

After his automobile slipped on wet pavement Saturday while rounding a curve of Highway 42, west of Coos Junction, and plowed along a ditch for a distance of 78 feet, Calvin Edward Birman, Roseburg, was cited for violation of the basic rule governing speed. State Police Sgt. Lyle Harrell reported. Four passengers in the car, including the driver, were not injured.

ITCH

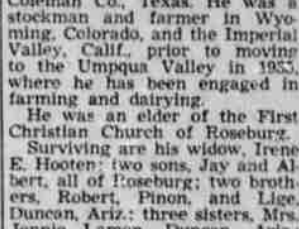

(Scabies) is highly contagious and will continue for life if not stopped. It is caused by the itch-mite, which is invisible to ordinary treatment. EXORAL kills the itch-mite almost instantly. Only three days' EXORAL treatment is required. Fred Meyer Drugs, Roseburg.

Deafened People May Now Hear Clearly

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device and enables thousands to enjoy serene music and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 6 1450 West 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny.
