Close-in Acreage offers Choice Investment

Approximately 51 acres at the junction of the Garden Valley and Calkins Roads now offers, we believe, the finest subdivision or suburban estate possibilities available today.

These beautiful rolling hills are particularly adaptable to a well planned subdivision or could be nicely cut up into suburban estates.

Paved road to the property and city water on place, together with its proximity to Roseburg, make it an ideal set-up.

There is a 6 room home and a good barn which might be converted into other usage, but we think the land alone is well worth the price. This fine property is available for $18,900. Terms. Let us show you its possibilities.
