Wedding Takes Place in Chicago

Picture by Ebert Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Huffman.

Miss Josephine Mennon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mennon of 4043 West Maypole Avenue, Chicago, became the bride of Francis S. Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Huffman, route 1, Brockway, at ten-thirty o'clock the morning of November 15 in Chicago with Father Sullivan performing the nuptial mass in the presence of sixty guests.

Following the wedding music, the bridal party advanced to the altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of heavy slipper satin fashioned en train. The bodice was designed with an off the shoulder satin effect with a net yoke. The hemline was colonial style. She wore an imported veil of illusion held in place with a coronet of scalloped ruching and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Miss Angelo Mennon, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore an American Beauty gown of crepe fashioned with a peplum. She wore a pink feather head-dress with matching pink gloves and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses. Mrs. Fred Peska, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown to match the maid of honor's. Alex Baranowski, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Following the wedding, a breakfast was served at the Graeme Hotel. After a honeymoon to Mexico City, the couple returned to Chicago and are at home to their friends at 223 N. Leamington Avenue.

The bridegroom attended school in Ohio and during World War II served five years with the U. S. Army in the Aleutians. He is now head shipping clerk for a large toy factory in Chicago and is attending college in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Strang, 540 Pennsylvania avenue, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary-Lee, to Lee Evan Brown, son of Mrs. Helen Brown, Medford, and Harry Brown, Williams. The wedding is planned for June at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Both Miss Strang and her fiancé are graduates of Medford high school and Mr. Brown is a veteran of World War two, having served with the army. He is now associated with his father in the lumber business.

Miss Strang with the California Oregon Power Company, having been with the firm seven years, and is a member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, business women's sorority.

The Strang family formerly made their home in Roseburg, where they have many friends. Last summer the bride and groom mother visited here at the home of Mrs. Frances Lintott on South Main street.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PARSONAGE OPEN-HOUSE IS CHARMING AFFAIR

Open-house of the new Christian Church parsonage was a very charming affair Sunday under the auspices of the Junior Division of the church with Mrs. Stanley Glick and Mrs. Selby Leep, co-chairmen. The new parsonage is an attractive, modern home located on Overlook.

Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. William Unrath and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Naas received the one-hundred and fifty guests calling. Mrs. Selby Leep, Mrs. Leonard Neseth, Mrs. Wayne Sadley, Mrs. Don Reed, Mrs. Darrell Anderson and Mrs. Chet Hamm alternated in pouring. Mrs. Leonard Tyler and Mrs. Bud Cooley had charge of the guest book, which was presented as a gift to Rev. and Mrs. Knox.

Assisting about the rooms and in serving were Mrs. R. M. Church, Mrs. Art Taylor, Mrs. Byron Harmon, Mrs. Clifford Baxter, Mrs. Darrell Munson, Mrs. Ernest Higginbotham, Mrs. Bob Schultz, Mrs. Alice Barker and Mrs. W. H. Carter. High School girls assisting with the affair were: Joyce Graham, Betty Brannon, Mildred and Dorothy Christianson, Marie Anderson and Donna Donahue.

The tea table was beautifully appointed and centered with an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons and tall lighted tapers.

CAROLYN J. PATTISON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 29

Carolyn J. Pattison, whose birthday occurs only once every four years on account of being born on February 29, was honored at a delightful dinner given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, at their home Sunday. Twelve candles lighted the beautifully decorated birthday cake. Peach-colored carnations were used to center the table. Covers were placed for Carolyn, guest of honor; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pattison; her uncle, Homer Pattison, and her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Pattison and Barbara.

From three to five, Mrs. Pattison entertained at a party honoring Carolyn and having as guests: Ivan Adams, Sandra Means, Janice Johnson, Loneta Kelley, Duke Ricketts and Barbara Pattison. Beautiful gifts were presented to Carolyn. Games were played and later, Mrs. Pattison served lovely refreshments.
