RIVERSDALE GRANGE HAS MEETING FRIDAY

Riversdale Grange met Friday night at the hall with the worthy master, B. F. Chilson, presiding. Interesting reports were made by chairmen of standing committees and a silver march was taken for the Red Cross.

It was announced the Home Economics Club will meet Friday, March 12, at a 12:30 o'clock potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Marks. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Plans were made for a birthday potluck dinner to be held at six-thirty the evening of March 19 at the hall honoring members having birthdays in January, February and March. The Garden Valley women will be in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Walter Norris and Mrs. Clifford Hess will act as co-hostesses.

Following the program refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richardson, Miss Melva Richardson and Louis Cottrell.

UNITED WORKERS CLASS MEETING HELD FRIDAY

United Workers Class of the First Christian Church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Miller with Mrs. C. G. Stanton, president, conducting the meeting and Mrs. Raymond Clark giving the invocation. It was announced that two members of the class, Mrs. C. R. Grove and Mrs. F. N. Graham, are moving to California.

A plan to reorganize the three adult Sunday School classes was proposed by the adult superintendent, United Workers Class members voted unanimously to retain the present organization and membership.

Instead of a program, the group offered prayers for the success of the meetings, which opened at the church March 9.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. H. B. Church and Mrs. J. R. Wilson to Mrs. Mary Plumer, Mrs. Elsie Young, Mrs. A. C. Thompson, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mrs. Raymond Clark, Mrs. Bertha Emmons, Mrs. Lucia Ingels, Mrs. A. M. Fisher, Mrs. C. Stanton, Mrs. Minnie Noyes, Mrs. Ethel White, Mrs. T. W. Edenbower Community Club will meet Friday night at 8 o'clock at the school lunch room. The regular business session will be followed by a program and refreshments. All residents of the community are invited.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB HAS MEETING

SUTHERLIN—The Associated Business Women's Club held its regular monthly business meeting Monday evening at the Methodist church.

Regular business of the club was transacted and disposed of and reports given of the Centennial plans already made. A new committee to represent the club was appointed and consists of Mrs. Lyla Chenoweth, Mrs. Florence Cook and Mrs. Donna Dean Blakeley. This committee will meet with similar committees from other service clubs for plans for a centennial for "Oregon Territory," being sponsored throughout the Old Oregon country.

A book drive for the benefit of the Sutherland Public Library will be carried on again this year. Any books to be donated will be placed in boxes at the local business houses. The drive will continue until April 15th. It is hoped a good response will be made again this year.

Proposed amendments to by-laws of the club were fully discussed.

The first quarterly banquet will be held at the Sutherland Grange Hall about one mile west of town on March 15th, at 7:30 o'clock. The dinner will be served by the ladies of the Grange.

YONCALLA WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB ENTERTAINED

Those attending were: Miss Gladys Johnston, Mesdames Vivian Lattance, Helen Buell, Mervyn Buell, Isabella McDowell, Imogene Appleyard, Myrtle Furth, Catherine Hayden, Betty Ferguson, Carol Herscher and Rosa Heinbach.

YOUNG LUTHERANS LEAGUE HAS MEETING

The Young Lutherans League of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Roseburg, and St. John's Church at Sutherlin, met at the Lowman home west of Roseburg. Since the group is joining "The Walther League," the international Lutheran Young Peoples, it was discussed during the evening. The name of the local group is now going to be "Douglas County Walther League."

After the business meeting and the topic study, refreshments were served to the following members and friends of the group: Rev. W. A. Sylvester, Gloria Gaston, Wayne, Harold and Willard Rietmann, Clinton Sattler, Paul and Peggy Urban, Pat Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Lowman and Gloria, Don and Jesse.

The next meeting of the League will be held on Wednesday, March 17, at the Rietmann home at Winchester. All members and friends are especially urged to attend because final arrangements will be made for the jointing of "The Walther League." All those desiring transportation or directions to the Rietmann residence call the pastor's residence.

CONCERT ASSOCIATION TO PRESENT FINAL CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday evening, March 13, at eight-fifteen o'clock, the Roseburg Community Concert Association will present its final concert of the year by bringing the St. Louis Sinfonietta to the Junior High School auditorium.
