W. C. T. U. TO HOLD MEETING

Roseburg W. C. T. U. will meet at a 12:30 potluck luncheon next Wednesday, March 31, at the Baptist Church. All members and friends are invited and are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

Mrs. B. B. Irving will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Golda Nickell, president, will conduct the business meeting.

All boys and girls, who have earned a W. C. T. U. bronze medal in speaking contests, are invited to meet with the group at three o'clock and participate in the program with two speech contests; one to be given by the boys and one by the girls, to contest for a bar for the bronze medal. Arrangements are being made to have a picture taken of the group of boys and girls. There are about 17 in the group.

An Easter egg hunt and party will follow for the boys and girls. A prize has been offered by the W. C. T. U. to the member bringing the most people to meetings. The contest started last month and will close with the April meeting. Mrs. Albert Allen is leading in the contest to date.
