Marry in Seattle, Feb. 7th

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Church

Of interest to friends in Roseburg and abroad was the wedding of Miss Judy Frances Hamilton and Charles E. Church of Roseburg at eight o'clock the evening of February 7 in the University Methodist Temple in Seattle.

The bride is the daughter of Maxwell M. Hamilton, former United States minister to Finland, and Mrs. Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton is now with the staff of Secretary of State George C. Marshall in Washington, D. C. Mr. Church is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church of Roseburg.

The Rev. Dr. Newton E. Moats read the double-ring service. Two candelabra and a large arrangement of white stock, snapdragons and calla lilies stood on either side of the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore traditional ivory satin, made with a lace collar, long sleeves and full skirt ending in a train. A Swedish cap of ivory satin held her full-length veil of Brussels lace. A white spray of orchids topped her prayer book.

Miss Donna Jo Short of Redmond, Ore., maid of honor, wore a white brocade dress styled with an off-the-shoulder neckline and full ankle-length skirt. Miss June Yeakel, Mrs. Randy Cooper and Miss Jane Coffin of San Francisco, bridesmaids wore white taffeta frocks, designed similar to the maid of honor's.

Don Malberg, fraternity brother

MRS. W. C. HOLMES HOSTESS TO UMPQUA DAUGHTERS OF NILE

Mrs. W. C. Holmes graciously entertained the Daughters of the Nile of Zuleima Temple at a lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at her home on East Douglas street Tuesday afternoon. Plum blossoms and Easter candles centered the table.

Mrs. George R. Acker, president, of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Peter Fisher and Kenneth Fisher, uncles of the bride, and Loyd Anderson, fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

The 100 wedding guests attended a reception at the Wesley House, where the assistants were Mr. and Mrs. David Fisher of Raymond, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fisher, uncles and aunts of the bride. Mrs. Peter Fisher cut the bride's cake. Mrs. W. W. Warren, the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. W. Stanley Allen, Seattle; Mrs. William B. McKinney, of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom; and Mrs. L. E. McClintock of Roseburg, poured. Mrs. Don Ashworth was in charge of the guest book.

For going away, Mrs. Church wore a dusty-pink wool dress with matching felt hat, a brown fur coat and alligator shoes and bag. After a brief wedding trip, the newlyweds returned to Roseburg to make their home.

The bride attended Oregon State College, where she is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Since she returned from Europe last fall, she has made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Will P. Fisher, in Seattle. The bride was born in Shanghai, where her father was United States consul.

Mr. Church attended University of Oregon and Oregon State College and is a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

He conducted the meeting and plans were made to entertain Mrs. Earl Newbury at a luncheon April 9. Three new members, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. Walter Brydges and Mrs. Robert McFarland, were welcomed into the club.

During the afternoon, the group sewed for the Shrine hospital. Those present were Mrs. Frank Burr, Mrs. Frank O'Brien, Mrs. George R. Aker, Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, Mrs. O. W. Harrah, Mrs. L. E.
