Sandy River Smelt Run Said Heaviest in Years

TROUTDALE, Ore., March 29.—(AP)—Smelt were running heavily in the Sandy river today and without any interference from the fishermen who jammed the banks and the Columbia River highway yesterday.

The sandy smelt run, first since 1946, drew a crowd estimated at between 10,000 and 30,000 yesterday, and slowed traffic to a crawl. The Columbia River highway, between here and the Viking park bridge was restricted to one-way traffic for many hours.

Police, who spent Sunday unsmothering traffic and confiscating catches beyond the 25-pound limit, expected a breather today. The smelt is closed from 12 o'clock a. m. Monday to 12 o'clock a. m. Tuesday. Old-timers described the run as the heaviest in years. Many fishermen netted their limit within a half-hour.

Neuner Revamps Staff to Carry Out New Duties

Attorney General George Neuner, above, reports he is revamping his office and staff to meet enlarged scope of duties and powers resulting from acts passed by the last legislature. The legislature made the attorney general the legal authority for all state commissions and imposed other duties which add greatly to the work and responsibility of the attorney general's office.

Neuner, who seeks the republican nomination for the second time, was appointed to the office of attorney general by the late governor Earl Snell, and was elected in 1944.

A former resident at Roseburg and still owner of orchard property in the Riddle district, Neuner since 1910 has occupied many public offices. During his residence in Roseburg, he served as state representative and as state senator from Douglas and county

In 1905 some serious-minded observers believed the limits of success had been reached in flying.
