is about concluded and that Russia is going to get what she wants.

LET'S hark back here for a moment to the Moscow newspaper talk about Sweden and Norway. We don't pay much attention to newspaper "talk" in this country.

IN Korea, a responsible American correspondent reports, the Russians are building a fortified line between Russian North Korea and American South Korea.

Maybe, the correspondent (AP's Roy Roberts) says, they're doing it to prove to the North Koreans that the Americans in South Korea are getting ready to attack.

IN Washington Bernard Baruch (whose advice has been right much oftener than it has been wrong) asks Congress for "action now" approving universal military training and a temporary draft.

HE then offers a statement that all reasonably well-informed persons know to be true. He says: "So terrible are the destructive potentialities of modern instrumentalities of war that it is no longer good enough to punish an aggressor AFTER he has begun a war. Preventing war (now) requires buttressing our national security before the crisis is upon us. Never again do we dare permit our own lack of preparedness to encourage any potential aggressor into attacking this country or into over-running other peaceful nations."

THAT is to say, the way to keep out of war is to make ourselves so strong that it won't be safe for ANYBODY to tackle us.

"Although the time for decision has come, there is no reason for panic or even fright. . . . The resources, economic, military and spiritual, which the free peoples of the world hold, are vastly superior to those which the totalitarian command."

HE uses big words, but his meaning is clear enough. What he is saying is that if we start soon enough and work hard enough and intelligently enough we can make ourselves so strong that Russia won't attack us.

Ex-Convict Must Now Pay Insurance on Safe

THREE MORE TO GO

By CHARLES V. STANTON

Newspaper readers have done a swell job in supplying information concerning early-day post offices in Douglas County, Assisting Lewis A. McArthur, Oregon historian, in gathering data concerning little known stations of former years, readers of the News-Review and Port Umpqua Courier have identified eight of eleven post offices on which information was sought by Mr. McArthur.

Three are still on the "missing" list—Rowes, Louis and Kroll.

Rowes post office operated from 1890 to 1892 and was closed to Glendale. Mr. McArthur wants to know where it was located and how the name originated. John C. Moore was the postmaster. Can someone in the Glendale area supply the information on this station? Write the editor of the News-Review, who will forward the data to Mr. McArthur.

We still need information on Louis post office which was operated by David D. Huff in the 1890's. It was located near Elkhead. What was the exact location and how did the name originate.

Kroll post office was operated by William L. Forsyth, sometime, someplace. Where was it and what was the origin of the name?

Mr. McArthur writes of his appreciation for help given to date and says that "returns from readers in Douglas County have been especially remarkable and your paper must have a profound influence, especially amongst the old timers."

Readers may be interested in his statement that "with the exception of Lane County, Douglas has had more post offices than any other county in Oregon, and yet the list of unknowns is really small. One of these days I shall succeed in getting most of them. The problem in Lane, Klamath, Curry and Baker counties is tough."

Bertha B. Pennell of Tiller writes to report that the spelling of Kohler, as used in connection with the post office at what is known as Reuben, was in error and backs it up with a postcard mailed April 18, 1911, and bearing a postmark from "Koler" post office.

"It could not be named Reuben," she reports, "because of a Reuben in Columbia county in this state. Freight orders at Portland were at times sent to the wrong Reuben, causing the railroad men extra worry and delay. I understood that the post office department had the name spelled 'Koler.'"

George Burnett, Myrtle Creek, previously had reported that the station was named for Richard Kohler, general manager of the Southern Pacific railroad company. The spelling "Kohler" was used by the historian.

Additional information also is given on Wroe post office, located four miles up the north fork of Smith River, about 20 miles up Smith River from Gardiner. We previously had a report from Mrs. George Thomas of Roseburg, who taught school in that district in 1922-23; but another letter has come in written by William M. Wroe, a brother of Floyd A. Wroe, the postmaster for whom the station was named.

"The post office never was operated, only installed," the writer says. "After he (Floyd Wroe) had everything ready for the post office, several families moved away and then there wasn't enough money in it, so he never went through with it. Floyd A. Wroe passed away several years ago in Portland. George B. Baldersee used to live around here years ago, but I can't remember him ever operating a post office."

We have, with the help of the Port Umpqua Courier at Reedsport, succeeded in locating and getting information on Willard, Sampson and Ruby post offices, previously unreported in this column and will pass on these reports another day.

In the meantime, if readers have data concerning any of the three post offices so far unidentified—Rowes, Louis and Kroll—please write all you know about the subject to the News-Review editor. Or if anyone has more complete information about any of the post offices so far reported in the list, we would like to have the comments. Mr. McArthur is interested in obtaining as much local history surrounding each of these stations as he can obtain.

case, contended he was not liable to pay the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company which insured the safe, because he was acquitted of the specific charge of burglary when he was convicted of grand larceny.

RHS Indians Drill For Doubleheader With Grants Pass

Coach George Erickson's Roseburg High School Indians will hold their final workout this afternoon prior to the opening of the spring baseball season, with a double-header baseball game slated at Grants Pass Friday afternoon.

Just how good the Grants Pass Cavemen are is not known here, but Coach Erickson will have a better opportunity to evaluate his own green squad during the contest.

Inexperience will handicap the Indians, as there are only three lettermen, Chuck Scofield, a possible starting pitcher, Jerry Coen and Harold Edgar, both outfielders, are on the roster.

The coach has been working the boys in various positions this week in an effort to find the most effective combination, but states he will not select a starting lineup until the day of the game.

Most promising to date are Scofield, Ronnie Oller, Wayne Reitman and Tom Johnson, with all likely to see action in the two games. John Rausert and Bob Saunders are shaping up as catchers.

Infielders include Bill Madison, or Bob Rogers, first base; Buddy Mathews or Dexter Garey, second; Leo Bowers or Archie Rutter, third, and Stan Cornutt or Frank Webber, shortstop.

Most promising outfielders are Niel Wessing, Coen and Edgar. However, the coach says, some of the younger fellows may crowd those showing the best now as the season progresses.

Beavers Post 2nd Win Over Oakland

(By the Associated Press) The racket you hear in the Pacific Coast League ball parks comes from bat hits banging against the fences.

Batters bombarded pitchers in the games last night, the second day of competition in the long season. Los Angeles' Angels topped them all with a 20-hit assault that sank San Diego, 17-3, a score duplicating Hollywood's opening night win over Seattle.

Seattle tallied 11 hits last night, to even things with the Stars, 4-3, in 10 innings. Portland's Beavers, who beat Will Hefey opening night, took picks off his pitcher-brother, Tom Hefey, last night as they beat the Oaks 9-4.

Each team got nine hits. San Francisco used a nine-hit attack to beat Sacramento, 4-1.

Portland's DiBianco coasted along against Oakland, being spotted a 5-2 lead by the fifth, but the Oaks touched him for two runs in the ninth. Tom Hefey, who started for Oakland, had to be derailed in the fourth. Reich and Mullen hit home runs for the Beavers.

Massachusetts Boxing Law Will Bar Unfit

BOSTON, (AP)—Professional boxers would be forbidden to compete in Massachusetts unless certified by a doctor if they had been knocked out six times in a year under a bill approved by the legislative committee on public safety.

The measure, which requires that doctors passing on a boxer must be selected by the boxing commission, is now in the State House.

It would be effective if the boxer had been ruled knocked out, either by a ten count or a technical kayo.

If a boxer is found to be physically unable to box by an examination under the proposed statute, he would be allowed to apply for reexamination in three months.

High School Football To Be on College Pattern

NEW YORK (AP)—Next season the nation's high schools will play their football on the college pattern.

A uniform set of playing rules was adopted here by a special committee representing both the college and high school organizations.

Whereas in the past there have been as many as 150 differences in the two codes, the revised standards reduce these differences to half a dozen, none important.

The main differences remaining deal with length of quarters and substitutions.

Striking Typos Told To Negotiate New Contracts

INDIANAPOLIS, April 1.—(AP)—The International Typographical Union ordered its striking locals to start new negotiations for contracts.

In a bulletin labeled "instructions and advice," ITU headquarters warned that strikers' benefits would be withdrawn from locals failing to comply.

The bulletin announced ITU will "fully comply" with an injunction granted the government "negotiate new agreements consistent with terms of the decree," in Federal District Court here last Saturday.

In that decree, Judge Luther M. Swoyer forbade ITU officers to carry out the union's "conditions of employment" bargaining policy. Specifically, it prohibited discrimination against non-union printers.

The injunction, however, is temporary, hinging on the outcome of a hearing before a national labor relations board examiner.

Outside Practice Shift Slated For Umpqua Chiefs

Outside baseball practice, starting at 5 p. m., is slated for the Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs Friday if the weather permits.

Announcement was made today that Dot and Ernie, fancy shooting specialists sponsored by Winchester Repeating Arms Co., will appear in exhibition at the Roseburg Rod and Gun Club rifle range at Winchester April 8.

The free shoot, open to the public, will be at 5:30 p. m. Known as the Shooting Linds, the pair will exhibit some of the finest shooting ever to be witnessed in this vicinity. The Linds have been shooting professionally since 1935, as a team since 1940, and as representatives of the Western and Winchester since 1944.

About 15 were present for the workout Wednesday night. Two new faces, Wallace Richardson, a pitcher, and Jimmy Clayton, a catcher, both of Dillard, who formerly played Junior American Legion baseball in Roseburg and last year were the battery for an independent team, were on hand and expect to bolster the local team this year.

A partial roster of the team, including the more promising material, was obtained Wednesday. Others will be added as the season progresses. Several new players are on deck this year, while a few of those familiar to local baseball enthusiasts also appear.

Willard Reitman and Phil Telford are pitchers, but Telford also has seen duty at first base. Jerry Buggins is out for catcher and Del Hoff has worked both as a catcher and an outfielder.

Other players and the positions most familiar to them, include Ward Cummings, first base; Bill Schermer and Rod Dotson, second basemen; Lovell Baker and Frank Dancer, third base; Bill Shapiro, George Sanders and Earl Wessett, utility infielders, and Elmore Hill and LaVon Baker, outfielders.

Several changes in positions are likely in order to obtain effective combinations, reports Manager Taft, who has been putting the team through calisthenics and general warmup drill in he practices thus far.

Oilers Win Final From Kentucky 5

NEW YORK, April 1.—(AP)—The Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., defeated the University of Kentucky, 53-49, in the finals of the Olympic tryouts last night.

Height and experience paid off for the national AAU champions as they turned back the NCAA titleholders in a rousing wind-up to the pre-Olympic dribble derby.

All-American Ralph Beard, Kentucky's great little guard, did his utmost to pull his team through to victory, but couldn't quite make the grade. His 23 points on 11 field goals and a free throw stamped him as the best offensive man on the floor.

In the final analysis, however, it was seven-foot Bob Kurland, the Oiler center, who spelled the difference. Kurland controlled play off the backboards and found

Tax Cut Bill Veto Going To Congress Tomorrow WASHINGTON, April 1.—(AP)—President Truman's expected veto of the $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill will go to congress tomorrow. This was decided at a White House conference today. Senator Taft said republican leaders have agreed to consider the expected tax veto immediately. Before World War II the Far East exported a net of four and one-quarter million tons of foodstuffs, but in 1947 it was a net importer of six and one-half million tons.
