

KENTILE

For Floors

For your home, your store, any institution, or anyplace where a good floor is desired, use KENTILE. The wide range of colors available make it possible for you to work out your own pattern and color scheme. For appearance, durability, and price there is no equal to KENTILE. Ask for estimates. You will be surprised at the low cost. KENTILE is not an asphalt tile.

Sold Only By

Coen Lumber Company

Floed and Mill Sts.

Ph. 121

DO YOU NEED DIESEL POWER?

The GUIBERSON

250 B. H. P. DIESEL

Now on Contract

1 Year "Terms" to Pay

★ ★ ★ ★

SALES and SERVICE

Gilkey Trading Post

523 N. JACKSON ST.

GOING TO BUILD?

YOU'LL NEED CONCRETE

...and we offer our complete concrete facilities so the job may be done better, quicker and at less cost. We will construct the forms, pour and mold the concrete to your specifications.

Free Estimates? Sure!

ROGER BROS. CONCRETE CONTRACTORS

Lookingglass Route

Ph. 192-J

New Mat Meanie Scheduled On Tonight's Card

Nothing delights the dyed-in-the-wool wrestling fan more than the appearance of a new comer, especially a villain, and that's just what is in store for the Douglas county mat addicts at the Roseburg Armory tonight. Matchmaker Don Owen will present for the first time Glen Knox of Tennessee. The hefty grappler shaves his head and wears a small mustache, but most important, packs dynamite in either fist. The former professional boxer, who has attained considerable showmanship along with his style, will be meeting another southerner—George Curtis.

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

The match, opening the card at 8:30 p. m., will lend the right tempo for the remainder of the program—what with all three matches featuring meanies against cleanies.

Given top billing will be a Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship skirmish between newly-crowned Gordon Hessel and the erstwhile titleholder, Joe Dorsett. Hessel, the New Mexico stylist who has become the most popular matman ever to show here, copped the crown from Dorsett in Salem last week.

"Although I'm not required to give him a return title tilt for three months, I believe I have the Italian villain's number and can turn the trick as easily as I did last week—and I want to."

get it over with once and for all," Hessel said when he signed for the re-match.

The fistie-minded Italian from New York's Eastside has won, lost and won the title on previous occasions and is determined to regain the coveted crown again with his dynamic style of attack—which includes questionable elusion to Georges Dusette here last week. That's also how Hessel took a verdict from Paavo Katenen, the rugged Finnish veteran whose figures is the most formidable foe he has ever met.

Dusette, the talented French-Canadian, will clash with Jack Lipscomb in the semi-final tilt, giving the program three-star billing. Lipscomb, the kidney-punching "Hoosier Hot Shot," is angling for a junior-heavy title bout against Frankie Stojack, and a victory over Dusette would virtually assure him of the match.

Elton Owen will be on hand to referee all three matches.

Negro Stars As Padres Trim L. A.

(By the Associated Press)
John Ritchie is doing all right for himself, and the San Diego Padres, as the first Negro player in the Pacific Coast League.

He fired the loudest blast of the ball game, a three-run homer, when San Diego trounced the Los Angeles Angels, 7-3, last night. It was the only game in the league, the others having been rained out.

The Angeles took a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning on Burnett's homer but San Diego fixed that in the same inning by scoring twice. Ritchie drove in the second run with a single. Los Angeles tied it at 2-2 in the fifth but in their fifth the Padres drove Angel starting pitcher Bauers from the mound.

Bauers gave three walks and a single which, with an error, produced two Padre runs and left two men on base. Ritchie cleared the bases with his homer immediately after Fleming took the mound. The Angels' Schuster homered in the eighth. San Diego's Lefty Olsen held Los Angeles to six hits, the Padres collecting 10.

Ritchie, a former San Diego high school student, is a catcher who since the PCL season opened Tuesday has had a homer, a triple and two singles in seven times at bat and has drawn three walks.

The San Diego-Los Angeles series is now even at two games apiece.

TRAFFIS FINES LEVIED

Collection of $410 in overload fines in the Justice Court Thursday and Friday was reported today by Justice of the Peace Thom as C. Hartiel. He said they included:

Robert B. Slagle, overload, $100; Lee Sellers, overload, $100; overlength load, $10; Edwin O'Neal, overload, $60; John W. Russell, overload, $20; H. N. Wayman, overload, $20; Virgil L. Stanfill, overload, $10; Glen H. Houser, unit overload, $10; Kenneth L. Devere, axle overload, $10; Victor L. DeSeram, overload, $10; Milla A. Smith, axle overload, $10.

PIPE AND FITTINGS

Though pipe and fittings are scarce we welcome all inquiries for plumbing and fixture installation. Guaranteed work. Free estimates.

KIER-CROUCH PLUMBING CO.

Mill and Mosher

Camp View Cafe

½ Mile North on Highway 99

Hours

Week Days: 7 A. M. to Midnite

Sundays: 11 A. M. to 7 P. M.

BREAKFAST

LUNCH

DINNER

REFRESHMENTS

WOOD and SAWDUST

Immediate Delivery

FUEL

Phone 468

16" Gr. Slabwood 4' Slabwood
16" Mill Ends 4' Dry Screened Sawdust 16" Dry

BURN SAWDUST!

50% CHEAPER THAN OTHER FUELS:
UNIFORM HEAT—PLENTIFUL SUPPLY
PHONE 468

Single and Double Loads of Planer Ends

Roseburg Lumber Co.

Roseburg

Ph. 468

Baseball Games At Grants Pass Canceled by Rain

Game called on account of rain! That's baseball for you, but the Roseburg High Indians got a nice trip to Grants Pass and the chance for three innings of baseball before a deluge drowned out the contest Friday afternoon. A doubleheader had been scheduled between the Indians and Cave-men, but the first string contest was called with the score knotted at 3-all in the third.

One Roseburg man was on base with two men out, when the game was brought to a close. Chuck Scofield, pitching for the Indians, turned in a good game in the box, while Bob Sanders looked steady catching. Jerry Coen and Harold Edgar hit well, Coen getting a single and a triple in two trips to the plate.

Grants Pass started the scoring in the second inning, when all three runs were made. Bertrand took first when hit by a pitched ball, advanced when Smith was walked, and both scored on a hit by Wilcox. The latter came home on a hit by Donovan.

In the first half of the third inning, Scofield and Bowers walked, and both scored on Coen's single. Edgar hit, scoring Coen, but was left on third as the game was called.

Donovan pitched and Wilcox caught for the Cave-men. Roseburg's lineup included: Scofield, pitcher; Sanders, catcher; Madson, first base; Mathews, second base; Bowers, third base; Cornutt, short stop; Wessing, right field; Coen, center, and Edgar, left field.

State League Entry Of Umpqua Chiefs Undecided

Harold Sanders and Grant Phillips, representing sponsors of the Umpqua Chief baseball team, will attend a meeting of the state baseball league's officers in Albany Sunday at 1 P. M. Whether the Chiefs will enter the state league will be determined following the meeting.

Final arrangements for the Southern Oregon League in which the Chiefs will compete, will be formulated at a meeting of team representatives in Medford tonight. Vern Helbig, Manager Doug Taitt and Secretary Elmore Hill will attend from here.

The local team will work out Sunday at 2:30 P. M. on Finlay.

Need Diesel Power? SEE GILKEY

523 N. JACKSON

Standard Radiator Repair

Harrison and McCord
Cores

BOIL-OUTS—FLUSHES
GAS TANKS

Complete Modern Equipment
AT TRIANGLE—JACKSON
and Winchester Call 686

DIESEL AND GAS TRACTOR SERVICE

Combines and all

Farm Equipment

FRED GOETZ

Garden Valley Road Roseburg, Ore.
Rt. 2, Box 101 Phone 483-R-1

Brain Insurance

Capital, machinery, raw material are not enough; a successful business also needs "brains."

Without the brains of the men who make a business tick, a concern can suffer real financial loss.

Let us show you how Business Life Insurance is solving this problem for proprietorships, partnerships, and close corporations.

Oscar C. Rolfsness

District Manager