DUCKY DAUGHTERS HOLD INITIATION MEETING SATURDAY

Members of Ducky Daughters met Saturday afternoon at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg in Laurelwood, at which time the following were initiated: Mrs. Gladys Q. Hall, Portland, grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon; R. B. Hampton, associate grand guardian, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Miss Cynthia Sue Turner, Honored Queen of Roseburg Bethel, and Mrs. Grant Osborn, worthy matron of Roseburg Chapter of Eastern Star. Mrs. A. J. Young, past guardian of Roseburg Bethel as well as past grand guardian of Oregon and the founder of the Roseburg Ducky Daughters, was also in attendance.

Ducky Daughters present included: Paula Helweg, Donna Lee Lashua, Annette Gibbons, Carolyn Keith, Marcia Newland, Gloria Holland, Norma Todd, Pat Richmond and Diane Jacklin.

Following the ceremony, a social hour was held and tea was served.

JAY-CEE DINNER DANCE IS ENJOYED

Members of the Jay-Cees and their ladies enjoyed a very delightful seven-thirty o'clock dinner-dance at the Riversdale Grange hall Saturday evening.

Guest speakers at the dinner were Paul S. Elliott, superintendent of the Roseburg School System, who talked on the school budget to be offered to the taxpayers for approval, and Dr. Roy Hanford, who spoke on the Community Hospital.

Covers were placed for 45. Dancing was enjoyed during the social hour. Ladies of the Riversdale Grange served the dinner.

COUNTRY CLUB POTLUCK SUPPER IS POSTPONED

The potluck supper and social evening announced for members of the Roseburg Country Club and their families for Saturday night, April 10, has been postponed on account of the Lions Club affair to be held there that evening, according to an announcement made today by the officers.

RIVERSDALE H. E. C. TO MEET AT HALL

Riversdale Home Economics Club will hold a twelve-thirty o'clock potluck luncheon Friday at the grange hall. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. A bulb and flower exchange will be held during the afternoon. All members are urged to be present.

GRAND GUARDIAN PAYS OFFICIAL VISIT TO ROSEBURG BETHEL

Bethel No. 8 of Job's Daughters entertained the Grand Guardian of Oregon, Mrs. Gladys Q. Hall and the Associate Grand Guardian of Oregon, Ray B. Hampton at a dinner and meeting for official inspection of ritualistic work at the Masonic Temple March 2. At that time the following girls were initiated into the order: Sally Chilson, Willa Wulshire, Donna Lee Shaeffer, Virginia Rouse, Sonya Felt, Molly Booth, Donna Sandusky, Mary Ellen Holbrook, Mary Joan Long, Margaret Taylor, Patricia Humphries and Janice Austin.

On March 24th the Bethel Daughters, their parents, members of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, O. E. S. and members of the Guardian Council of Bethel were guests of Laurel Lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M. at which time the officers exemplified the initiatory ceremony. Degrees were conferred on Jean Rapp, Mary Roughcore and Beverly Nichols.

Plans are now being made by members of the Bethel to attend Grand Session which will be held April 8, 9 and 10 in Portland. On April 3 Mr. Hampton, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Earl Plummer and Miss Lorraine Loease assisted the Grand Guardian, Mrs. Hall, in instituting a new Bethel in Bandon, Oregon. Twentynine girls were initiated into the order by the officers of the Coquille Bethel. Others in attendance from Roseburg were Mrs. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Loease and Joan and Lorraine Taylor.

FEDERATION CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN PORTLAND

Mrs. William B. Chambliss, Hillsboro, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, has announced that the official "call" to the 57th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has been released. According to the convention call, the 1948 convention will be held in the municipal auditorium of Portland, May 24-28. Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck of Richmond, Virginia, federation president, will preside over the convention, the first to be held during her administration. She will be assisted by the two vice-presidents, Mrs. H. C. Houghton, Red Oak, Iowa, and Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, Whiting, Indiana. Foreign delegates, many of whom will appear in their native garb, will take an active part in the program under the direction of Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, Baltimore, Md., extension secretary for the foreign and territorial clubs and a past president of the general federation.

Men and women, prominent in national and international affairs, will discuss pressing problems. Reports on important general federation projects in international relations and youth conservation will be featured.

Policy forming resolutions are included in the convention call which has been sent to each club president. Their consideration will be one of the main orders of business during the morning sessions. These include resolutions favoring prompt ratification by the United States of the International Bill of Human Rights; the prompt establishment of an international police force;

RENEWAL OF RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENT ACT AND THE ENDORSEMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ORGANIZATION; REFORM OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS BOTH AS TO POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION.

Registration starts Sunday, May 23, in the outer lobby of the auditorium and continues through the week.

Pre-convention affairs Monday, May 24, will include the state president's luncheon at the Hillsboro home of Mrs. William B. Chambliss, president of the Oregon federation; a youth conservation meeting; and a junior meeting.

The convention will open officially with the Oregon banquet Monday, May 24, followed by a reception in honor of Mrs. Buck. There are luncheons planned for each day, restricted to interested groups. These include the junior luncheon Monday, open to state junior chairmen and junior clubwomen, the youth conservation luncheon Tuesday for state, district and club chairmen of youth conservation, the press and publicity luncheon for the state press chairmen and editors the radio luncheon and the motion picture luncheon Thursday for state, district, and club chairmen, and the foreign and territorial clubs luncheon Thursday open to delegates, board of directors, state, regional district, and club extension secretaries of foreign and territorial clubs. Besides the Oregon banquet Monday, there are five regional dinners Wednesday open to delegates and visitors from their respective regions, and the sea food buffet dinner Friday night, which is open to all making reservations.

Convention sessions will continue through Friday, May 28, and delegates will take specially arranged sightseeing tours on Saturday.

REPLY TO REPLY-BIBLE QUIZ

The Bible doesn't say Sabbath or Saturday but first day of the week. Acts 20:7. Jesus rose from the dead the third day, Luke 24:46, or day following the Sabbath, Math. 28:1, which would be the first day of the week, or Sunday. Jesus appeared to His Disciples the first day of the week, John 20:19. Again after eight days which is the first day of the following week, John 20:26. The Corinthian Church must have come together the first day of the week, I Cor. 16:2. Christ is the end of the law, Rom. 10:4. Law was our school master. Gal. 3:24 Schoolmaster refers to the Roman slave that conducted the boys to and from school. But after that faith is come we are no longer under a school master. Gal. 3:25. Therefore let us not be deceived.
