

Nebraska GOP Voting On Presidency Choice

(Continued from Page One) or better—is likely to be hailed as a strong darkhorse possibility in the event of a GOP convention deadlock. None Quite Sure The campaign windup last night indicated that none of the supposedly three leading aspirants is quite sure of the results of today's counting. Republicans also will elect 15 national convention delegates. Most of the 32 candidates have indicated they will support the winner of the popularly contested on the first ballot at Philadelphia. Democrats will pack a 12-vote slate of delegates. They are expected to back President Truman for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Truman is the only one entered on the Democratic presidential ballot. Stassen claimed at Omaha yesterday that he will top all Republican presidential candidates with 300 votes on the first nominating ballot at Philadelphia. He said he is satisfied this will be greater than the total of any other candidate, including Dewey and Taft. Taft, Dewey and Stassen generally are expected to be top runners in tomorrow's balloting here.

School Budgets Up To Douglas County Voters

(Continued from Page One) open for at least one hour at the time most convenient in each of the various districts, Mrs. Lula C. Gorrell, county school superintendent, said. If the proposed county school levy should fail to be passed, Mrs. Gorrell pointed out, the County Rural School Board would be able to levy proportionately in each district only the amount within the 6 per cent limitation. Each district would then have to hold an individual election for the money needed outside the 6 per cent tax limitation. Many districts now have found it necessary to plan additional elections to consider matters that the rural board did not allow in the county-wide budget. In many instances, Mrs. Gorrell said, the rural board did not allow as much for salaries for teachers as some districts had planned. The board did allow for an over-all 10 per cent increase over present teachers' salaries.

If individual school districts find it necessary to hold another budget election, the recommendation is being made that such elections be held at the time of the regular school district elections on the third Monday in June, Mrs. Gorrell said. Total proposed operating budget for the county schools is placed at $1,630,880.76 in the coming fiscal year. Estimated receipts and cash balances from sources other than taxation are placed at $765,943.56. The total tax levy is $852,431.92, including $269,233.68 within the 6 per cent limitation.

Qualifications for voters in both elections—Friday and Monday—are that they be 21 years of age, residents of the district in which they vote at least 30 days, and pay real or personal property taxes, or own stock in a corporation paying such taxes in the district in which they vote.

U. S. Superforts Flying Overseas to Show Power

(Continued from Page One) Russia. WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass., April 13.—(AP)—One of the mightiest fleets of U. S. Airforce bombers ever sent overseas took off today for Germany—possibly other stops abroad. While officials here said the number of B-29's was "classified" information, it was learned that about 30 Superforts make up the fleet. The flight—longest peacetime hop of large numbers of B-29's in airforce history—was officially described as "a routine training mission."

Pan-American Meet To Continue Despite Revolt

The Russians maintained restrictions on the movement of Allied ground traffic to and from Berlin, which is deep inside Soviet occupation territory. In Austria, however, British and American rail traffic through the Soviet zone was reported normal again today, with military trains clearing checkpoints with little delay. Italian Reds Slipping There were increasing signs in Italy that the Italian Communists are losing ground in the campaign for next Sunday's elections.

The Communists appeared to have stopped talking about arms and insurrection if the parliamentary elections should not go their way. They also have adopted what appears to be a more conciliatory attitude toward the Marshall plan.

In Greece, a bitter battle between army troops and Communist guerrillas raged into its third day at Kalavryta in the northern Peloponnese. An army commander said one section of the town was penetrated by guerrillas, who raided two banks.
