GENERAL FEDERATION TO HOLD CONVENTION IN PORTLAND IN MAY

Highlight of the annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, when it convenes in Portland in May, will be the Oregon banquet at the Masonic temple, Monday, May 24, the opening night of the convention. Guests of the Oregon federation at this banquet will include Mrs. J. L. Blair, president, Richmond, Virginia, and other members of the general federation, state presidents, and city and state officials.

The Portland Federation of Women's Organizations with Mrs. D. O. Trexler as chairman, is in charge of arrangements. The business and professional group with Mrs. Grace Phipps of the Women's Advertising Club as chairman, will look after the doors, while Mrs. Fred Noll of the Verseweavers is chairman of the speakers and guests committee. Mrs. Leland Hess, Monday Musical club, is co-chairman.

Mrs. Jule Metger of the Soroptimist club, is chairman of the committee on seating.

Decorations for the tables will carry out the Indian theme. Place cards, in the shape of a bust of an Indian woman, are being hand tinted by members of the Salem Junior Woman's club. Two hundred miniature, beaded moccasins, hand made by members of the Oregon Trails club of Pendleton, will be given as favors to board members of the general federation.

Music will be under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Gaskins, Corvallis, state music chairman, who will lead the group in a medley of state songs during the evening.

Mrs. William B. Chandler, Hillsboro, president of the Oregon federation, will give the address of welcome, after which Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar of Portland, past president of the general federation, and now an honorary past president, will introduce Mrs. Buck, who will give the main address.

MRS. GEORGE E. HOUCK IS GUEST SPEAKER AT CANYONVILLE CLUB

Mrs. George E. Houck, president of the Roseburg Woman's Club, was guest speaker on the subject, "Hobbies" Thursday at a meeting of the Canyonville Woman's Club. Mrs. Houck gave an intensely interesting discussion on her collection of buttons and exhibited a number in her large collection. Mrs. Ross Hodgkinson very charmingly presented a group of vocal selections.

Mrs. Houck was accompanied to the meeting by her secretary, Mrs. W. H. Carter; Mrs. Lee Wells, a member of the board of directors; and Mrs. Harry Hatfield, district treasurer.

Guests of honor included Mrs. Houck, Mrs. Jack Maria, president of the Canyonville Woman's Club; Mrs. H. M. Anderson, president of the Canyonville P. T. A. for two years; Mrs. A. G. Jacobson, chairman of the community stunt night and birthday calendar committee, which raised money for sound equipment and a movie projector for the school.

Following the meeting tea was served by Mrs. Chris Daniels, Mrs. Raymond Hays, Mrs. Henry Ford, Mrs. Jack Straw, Mrs. Albert Mault, Mrs. Ray Bartley, Mrs. James Lonsdale and Mrs. Walter Jensen.

The next meeting will be April 22 at eight o'clock in the evening at the L. O. O. F. hall.

Everytown Grange has invited the public to attend a chicken pie supper at six-thirty o'clock Saturday night, April 17, at the hall. In addition to the chicken pie, salad, rolls, homemade pies and coffee will be served.

P. N. G. CLUB MEETING HELD

SUTHERLIN—The Past Noble Grands club members enjoyed a delightful dessert supper Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock at the parlors of the Methodist Church with Mable Ross, hostess. The long linen-covered table was centered with a beautiful potted white hyacinth flanked with tall lighted yellow tapers.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Olga Bielmann, Mrs. Charlotte Parker, Mrs. Ethel Manning, Mrs. Juanita Holgate, Mrs. Leona Slack, Mrs. Pearl Hand, Mrs. Bertha Barge, Mrs. Harriet Stearns, Mrs. Cora Allen, Mrs. Ella Wegner, Mrs. Alma Anderson, Mrs. Hazel Green, Mrs. Belle Cook, Mrs. Maude Culver, Mrs. Velma Brauning, Mrs. Nellie Peterson and Mrs. Phreda Wahl.

The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Green. The new officers were installed as follows: Mrs. Brauning, president; Mrs. Peterson, vice president; Mrs. Stearns, marshal; Mrs. Wahl, guardian; Mrs. Parker, musician; and Mrs. Bielmann, chaplain.

A social hour was enjoyed. The first game was a word building game and Mrs. Slack won the prize for making the most words out of the name Sutherlin. Bingo was then played until ten o'clock, with Mrs. Barge winning high prize and Mrs. Holgate the second high. Mrs. Allen won the penny prize.

The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in May at the Ray Parker home with Mrs. Parker as hostess.

HORIZON CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Members of the Horizon Club held an interesting meeting at the home of Ethel Mae Wilson, at which time the girls who have been serving their pledge period, took the test and fulfilled the requirements to make them members.

Plans were made for various service projects and for participation in the Grand Council Fire to be held April 23. Mrs. Sidney Domenico, executive director, was the guest speaker.

Those present were Miss Helen Larkin, leader, Donna Lee Pinard, Ethel Mae Wilson, Rosemary Spackman, Nanette DesBiens, Betty Tauscher and Mary Anne Foster.

VIRGIL WOODRUFF IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Virgil Woodruff was honored at a delightful birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wesley Sunday. Tall candles, in marshmallow holders, a beautiful birthday cake and spring flowers decorated the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrott and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley and daughter, Joanne. Gifts were presented to Mr. Woodruff and the social hours were pleasantly spent in visiting.

MR. AND MRS. WRIGHT TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright will hold open house at their home on Days Creek Sunday April 18, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. All relatives and friends are most cordially invited to call between
