Marry on Easter in Japan

Lt. and Mrs. Thornton E. Luttrell

At an impressive four o'clock Easter ceremony at the 118th Station Hospital chapel, Fukuoka, Kyushu, Japan, March 28, first Lieutenant Althea LaRaut, daughter of Mrs. Vernon LaRaut and the late Mr. LaRaut of Roseburg, became the bride of First Lieutenant Thornton E. Luttrell, of Long Beach, Calif. Captain Louis L. Previtt, chaplain, officiated. The music was furnished by Sgt. Elton Anderson and Corporal John Young.

The chapel was decorated with greens and cherry blossoms with candelabra, holding tall white candles, flanking the altar. The decorations were arranged by Lt. Doris Hussa and Mr. Sheedy.

The bride was given in marriage by Col. Robert E. Hittner, M.C., Commanding Officer of the 118th Station Hospital. Captain Martha Garthe, Principal Chief Nurse, was maid of honor, and Captain William E. Claton was best man.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with fitted bodice and yoke. An overskirt extended into a two-yard train. A fingertip veil was held by numerous clasps of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white Easter lilies. Captain Garthe wore a gown of ice blue and carried a bouquet of spring blossoms.

A reception and dinner followed at the Officers Club. The bride's table, centered with a beautiful white tiered cake, made by the Mess Sergeant, 1st Sgt. Kenneth Reid, was cut by the bride and bridegroom. The groom's cake was cut and wrapped in small packages, which were presented to the guests. Greenery and tall candles formed the decorations, while pastel colors were used in the indirect lighting.

After a wedding trip to Nikko, Honshu, Japan, the couple will resume their duties with the 118th Station Hospital, where the bride is Chief Dietitian, and the bridegroom is Assistant Medical Detachment Commander.

The bride was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1942, where she majored in dietetics. During the war she served with the army in the European Theatre of Operations.

T. B. hospital, Salem, to be speaker on subject, "Community Health."
