BONNIE JEAN LEACH

WEDS OREGON MAN AT CHURCH CEREMONY
PORT ANGELES, Wash. — A gown of her own design was worn by Bonnie Jean Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Leach, when she became the bride of William Earl Miller of Hillsboro, Oregon, Saturday evening. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olsen of Hillsboro.

The couple repeated their vows to Rev. James Albertson at the First Methodist Church, Forsythia, daffodils and lilies decked the church.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white satin with pointed neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. A ruffling of net outlined the neck. The net was repeated in a pointed inset in the skirt topped by a satin bow. A Mary Stuart headpiece held her finger-ring veil and she carried a fragrant bouquet of gardenias, pink roses and white lilies.

Beverly Leach served as her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was pale blue organza and she carried pink roses and white lilies.

The bridesmaids were Norrene Morris and Bertha Amundsen, gowned in pink crepe and carrying similar bouquets.

The candlelighters in white were Beverly Poole and Ada Mae Nelson. Vickie Long, dressed in a pink organza frock, served as flower girl. Rex Cruise was best man and ushers were the groom's brothers, Ray and Robert Miller of Hillsboro.

Soloist was Delores Miller who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Leach, the bride's mother, wore a rose of tennoon dress with navy and white accessories. The groom's mother Mrs. Olsen, chose a forest green suit with black accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations and sweetpeas.

Pouring at the reception were Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Robert Richardson. Serving was Mrs. Harry Long assisted by Mrs. George Sinclair, Mrs. Edward Kostlevy and Mrs. Archie Helgeson.

For her wedding trip to Seaside, Oregon, the bride donned a forest green suit with brown and green accessories. The couple will be at home after April 11 at Hillsboro.

Out of town guests at the wedding from Roseburg, Oregon were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonebrake, maternal grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bonebrake, Grant Bonebrake, Dick and Dale Bonebrake.

From Hillsboro came the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, and other family members including Delores Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Mr. and Mrs. B. Miller, Raymond and Robert Miller.

The bride's mother is the former Lorene Bonebrake of Roseburg.
