B. P. W. C. HAS DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The Theme "Truth or Consequences" was carried out in good spirit by the men guests at the April Frolic which the Business and Professional Women's Club held at the Riverside Grange on the evening of April 12. The program followed a dinner which the ladies of the grange served to over sixty members and friends of B. P. W. C.

Stella Spencer, chairman of the frolic, performed as mistress of ceremonies by special permission of Ralph Edwards. . . . in good Truth or Consequences style. As their guests were called to the platform, they failed to answer the questions correctly, and so were given a consequence to carry out. Most of the laughter of the audience there were cracker fights, marshmallow races, and the singing of laundry lists set to music. A special guest attraction was the pantomime rendition of "Fly, Birdie Fly" and "Donkey Serenade" by Raeda Reece and Pauline Miller.

Missing Link?

Some authorities say this animal, a tarsier from the Philippine Islands, may be a definite link in the chain of evolution. The tiny mammal, one of three tarsiers just acquired by the London Zoo, has an ape-like skull. It leaps from tree to tree aided by sucker-like discs at the end of its fingers.

Boy Scouts Date Drive for Paper

Roseburg's Senior Boy Scouts have decided on May 15 for what may be their final paper drive, reports W. H. Scofield, advisor.

The Scouts have had difficulty finding a market for the paper, but a source has been located in Portland that can handle a limited amount, said Scofield.

The drive will start at 8 a. m., with two trucks working the town on the pickup. Residents are asked to have their bundles securely tied, as no loose paper can be handled, and place in front of their homes early enough that it will not be passed up.

Because of the large area to be covered, no second trip will be made. The paper must all be loaded on a freight car ready to leave Sunday night.
