Marry in Eugene, March 20th

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scofield

Miss Bernice Stearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Stearns of Medford, became the bride of Raymond Scofield, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Scofield, of Roseburg, at the Congregational Church in Eugene, March 20. Dr. Wesley G. Nicholson performed the impressive ceremony at one o'clock in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

A cascade bouquet of white stock, yellow tulips and daffodils decorated the altar, which was flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers and large baskets of ferns and flowers.

Preceding the ceremony, William O'Leary sang, "Gail" and "With This Ring." The altar candles were lighted by Mrs. Donald Ferguson and Miss Betty Lou Arnot.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory brocade with a marquisette yoke. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip in length and edged with lace and held in place with a tiara of illusion set with seed pearls. She wore a garnet ring, a family heirloom, that formerly belonged to her mother. Her shower bouquet of stephanotis was centered with white butterfly orchids.

Miss Norma Stearns of Medford was maid of honor for her sister and wore a gown of peach-brocaded taffeta fashioned with a bustle. She carried a shower bouquet centered with yellow tulips. Charles Scofield, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Donald Ferguson and Robert Merz were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua with a black hat and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of pink. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception followed in the Wheeler room. Yellow candles in crystal holders flanked the center bouquet of white stock, yellow tulips and daffodils on the table.

Miss Ellen Lemley served the punch. Miss Naomi Strong and Miss Shirley Harlow cut the cake and Miss Marilee Yeager and Miss Suzie Michel served.
