Marry by Candlelight, April 3rd

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Rogers

At a candlelight wedding at the First Methodist Church Saturday evening, April 3, Miss Wynona Borgen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Borgen, 102 Roberts street, became the bride of Donald S. Rogers, son of Mrs. Lorraine Rogers, also of this city.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Chaplain H. W. Anderson of Tacoma, Wash., friend of the family, assisted by Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Baskets of snapdragons and spring flowers with candelabra holding tall white tapers formed the setting for the ceremony. White standards, twined with ivy, and holding white candles, marked the pews down the center aisle.

The candles were lighted by Miss Lois Hill and Miss Lois Barr, sorority sister of the bride, from Eugene, who wore matching pink formals and wristlets of spring flowers.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Connie Jeanne Sumner sang, "At Dawning" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Stewart, organist, who played the traditional wedding marches, the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding Re-cessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned with a train. The yoke was of lace with off the shoulder drapes held by orange blossoms. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a beaded coronet. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid tied with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. John Hewitt, formerly Bonnie Anderson of Tacoma, Wash., was matron of honor and wore a gown of aqua sheer nylon fashioned on Princess lines and off-the-shoulder neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of spring flowers.

Mrs. Bert Young and Miss Grace Simpson were bridesmaids and wore identically made gowns, necklaces and long gloves. Mrs. Young wore orchid and Miss Simpson wore a yellow gown. They carried matching bouquets of spring blossoms.

Little Julie Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, was flower girl and wore a floor-length dress of pale pink and carried a basket of spring flowers. Jimmie Robertson, cousin of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarvis Robertson, was ring bearer. Ivan Rogers was best man and J. Jarvis Robertson and Bert Young were ushers.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for relatives and close friends. Mrs. J. Jarvis Robertson, and Mrs. Archy Horr, aunts of the bride, poured. Mrs. Doris McLaughlin served the cake.

Out-of-town guests were Chaplain and Mrs. H. W. Anderson and daughters, Mary Lou and Dorothy of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. J. Cornutt of Eugene; Mrs. Archy Horr of Sisseton, S. D.; Mrs. Ruth Witterling of Kensing, Minn.; Miss Lois Barr, Miss Lois Hill and Miss Grace Simpson of Eugene.

For traveling the bride wore an aqua-colored suit with white accessories. Following a wedding trip to Portland and various points along the Oregon coast, the couple returned to Roseburg to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in 1943 and attended University of Oregon. She is affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Since returning from an extended visit in Hawaii with her brother, Dale Borgen, she has been employed at the Douglas County Public Welfare Commission. The bridegroom was graduated from Libby High School at Libby, Mont. He

your own hot water
with Fowler Economy
Temperature Control

Hot water flows from your faucet at just the temperature you desire! Not only automatic, the Fowler Economy Temperature Control is adjustable.

How handy just to turn the dial to any temperature, ranging from about 125° to 175°, depending upon your special demand for hot water. Perhaps a heavy washday, coupled with a round of showers would call for a peak-hot supply. Again lower temperatures would suit other needs. Water is sparkling clean too, for the Fowler water heater is glass-lined—double coated with porcelain to protect the water from tank rust. The "black heat" elements and 3-way insulation provide low operating cost and a long life water heater. It's no wonder Fowler is backed by a 20-year replacement guarantee! Order your Fowler!
