In the Day's News

Considering a preliminary test of CONGRESSIONAL SENTIMENT on the principle of eventual American (military) support for the western European nations that are combining to oppose the spread of communism.

IT SEEMS to this small writer that we'd better get the situation before congress NOW and find out definitely what we're going to do about it.

CHICAGO dispatch says: "Empty cattle lots dot the mid-western landscape today, a ghostly reminder of last summer's short corn crop.

WHAT hits us, of course, with something of a jolt. It shouldn't. Months ago, we were told what would happen and about when it would happen.

LOT of people are wondering why young Harold Stassen is sweeping the primary elections. This may be it: We've lost confidence in our old-school political leadership and want a new kind of leaders.

ACCESS ROAD NEEDS

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The Western Forest Industries Association has taken up the cudgel for increased appropriations to finance construction of access roads into federally-owned timber lands.

Of all the dim-wit acts for which Congress must accept responsibility, we believe its policy on access roads is about the worst. The cut proposed in appropriations for access roads indicates complete ignorance of both the forestry problem and the economics of administering the public domain.

In letters to congressional delegates from Western states, the association sets forth its opinion as follows: Construction of publicly financed timber access roads is desirable for several reasons.

To illustrate how the access road program would benefit the industry, we can imagine a federally constructed highway up the North Umpqua River, through the heart of the Umpqua National Forest.

Construction of these roads would cost the government nothing. In fact, the government would profit. Sales, as presently conducted, permit deduction from the over-all values, of the operator's cost of road construction.

Despairing that Congress will ever be brought to a realization of the economics involved, some persons connected with the industry are urging legislation which would permit borrowing money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to build the access roads.

Regardless of the method used for financing, it is quite apparent that Congress is extremely short-sighted in failure to push the access road program through to earliest possible completion.

Merchants Of Grants Pass Defeats Chiefs

Visitors Spot Home Club 5 Runs First 2 Frames, Then Score 9 to Win Tilt

After spotting the Umpqua Chiefs five runs in the first two innings, the Grants Pass Merchants bunched 11 hits in their three frames to win, 9 to 5, in a Southern Oregon Baseball League game played Sunday afternoon on Finlay field.

Roy Long started out bravely for the Chiefs and pitched four innings in which he yielded five scattered hits, but permitted no runs. He was coasting along smoothly, with five runs tallied for Roseburg, when he ran into a mess of trouble in the fifth.

The Chiefs took a couple of gift runs in the first inning as the result of two Grants Pass errors and a single by V. Baker, but they earned their three tallies in the second when Huggins led off with a scratch double, followed by successive bingles by Long, Sanders and Hoff, and a sacrifice by L. Baker.

Hollies Twice Defeats Beavers; Other Clubs Split

By The Associated Press. The Coast League's big three—San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland—looked with new respect today at a fourth contender, up and coming Hollywood.

The Stars, finally hitting the stride expected by many critics, two-timed Portland yesterday, 9-2 and 4-3, to make it a six-one victory over the Beavers. This near-sweep lifted Hollywood to a 500 percentage and fourth place tie with San Diego.

San Francisco managed to retain its slim hold on first place by walloping San Diego, 8-2, after losing by the same score; Los Angeles losing to Sacramento, 3-2, after winning, 16-2. The other Sabbath twin bill was divided: Seattle 5-1 Oakland 1-2.

Phantom Defeats Katonen; Johnson Downed by Hart

The Phantom, head butting specialist, again proved his head to be harder than his opponents and twice thumped Paavo Katonen into senselessness to hold his favorite figure-four toe afloat and remain undefeated since his recent arrival from the Hawaiian Islands.

Katonen, however, proved a worthy antagonist and delivered the man from the "unknown" plenty of punishment on his own. For once the rugged Finn was the hero at the local Armory Saturday night, as the fans cheered him on. Time and again he had the Phantom groggy from rough treatment, and just before the final fall Katonen had his opponent's head tightly tied in the ropes, until Referee Jack Poppenheimer was able to free him.

By virtue of his win The Phantom was awarded a match with Rufus Jones, Detroit Negro, here next Saturday. Jones is considered one of the roughest in the game and is certain to try a bit of head-butting himself.

Last Saturday's bout opened with plenty of roughstuff during the first few minutes. The masked villain managed to break most of Paavo's holds with well aimed blows or by running for the ropes. The Finn usually retaliated with a bit of roughstuff for his own.

After 34 minutes of rough and tumble, the Phantom floored Katonen with his head-butts and clamped on his figure-four. The second fall went to the masked man in a similar fashion after seven minutes, but he took plenty of punishment himself in the last few minutes.

Frankie Hart defeated Gust Johnson two out of three falls in the opening match. He won the first round after 18 minutes with a Dutch windmill. Johnson applied a surfboard after six minutes of the second period. Hart kept Johnson in hot water with a leg scissors in the last session, until the latter, finally breaking the hold, came out fighting. This proved his undoing, for after the two had slammed each other around the ring for a while with fists, knee-butts and body slams, Hart finally floored Johnson with a body but and left him for a body press after 14 minutes.

Batting Kings Of 1947 Top Factors In Sunday's Wins

Associated Press Sportswriter. Kings, whose St. Louis baseball season, but Major League pitchers are finding out, much to their sorrow, that Ralph Kiner, Johnny Mize and Ted Williams still pack that old home run wallop.

Each of the three home run kings of the 1947 crashed important four-baggers yesterday. Kiner, whose St. Louis pitcher Mize for the National League championship, cracked two to pace the surprising Pirates to a 6-4 win over the Cincinnati Reds in Pittsburgh. Both were hit off Blackwell, the second coming with two men on base.

The victory was Pittsburgh's eighth against four defeats and enabled the pace-setting Pirates to retain their half-game lead over the New York Giants in the National League. The second game was postponed by rain. Mize slammed a home run with one mate aboard to break a 1-1 tie and inaugurate a four-run sixth inning as the Giants defeated the Boston Braves, 5-1, in New York. It was the slugging first baseman's third home run of the year. Ted Has Field Day. Williams was the whole works in the 7-1 Red Sox triumph over the New York Yankees in Boston. Ted tripped to drive in two runs. He batted his fourth home run of the season in the eighth off Page with two mates aboard for a day's total of five runs batted in. Ted now leads the American League with 14 RBI's. The rebounding Detroit Tigers handed the Indians their second straight defeat in Cleveland, 4-2. The Philadelphia Athletics vaulted into second place by whipping the Washington Senators for the third straight time in the Capitol City, 4-3. Heintzelman pitched a four-hit shutout for Philadelphia in the National League to give the Phillies a split in their double header with Brooklyn. The Phils won the afternoon, 4-0, after the Brooks had pasted four pitchers for 13 hits and a 9-6 win in the first game. Amassing 19 hits off five pitchers, the Chicago Cubs buried the St. Louis Cardinals under a 13-4 score.

Backlund Captures Distance Honors At K-Falls Meet

Arr Backlund, Roseburg distance ace, ran off with the distance honors at Klamath Falls Saturday, winning the Ralph Hill mile and the 880-yard run.

Running against a strong wind and in 50-degree weather, Backlund won the mile in 4:50 against a field of 26 runners representing schools of Southern Oregon and Northern California. Ralph Hill, U. S. Olympic star of 1932, presented the Indian runner the Ralph Hill award for his winning effort.

An hour later Backlund came back to beat the efforts of Gleason of Medford in the 880-yard run. His winning time was 2:06.8. Gleason led the race to the final straight a-way, where the Roseburg star put on a burst of speed and broke the tape 15 yards ahead of the Medford runner. Gleason last year placed 3rd in the 880-yard run at the Oregon State track meet.

Don Hubbard, junior hurdler, placed third in the low hurdles, which were run in 23.4 seconds to the meet record. Bob Sconce placed sixth in the javelin throw after injuring his back in the preliminaries. Roseburg placed fifth in the meet of 200 entries, scoring 13 points. The Medford Tornado ran away with first place honors, scoring 67 1/2 points; Klamath Falls was second with 43 1/3, Ashland was third with 36 1/3, and Grants Pass was fourth with 31.

The Roseburg track squad will play host to the Grants Pass Cavemen here Tuesday afternoon in a dual meet which will get under way at 2:00 p. m. The Cavemen are highly favored to win but the Indians are expected to give worthy competition. Coach Jack Newby will select the team to represent Roseburg at the district meet from the outcome of the Tuesday affair.

Kentucky Derby Won by Citation

LOUISVILLE, May 3.—(AP)—The combination of Kentucky Derby record smasher, Calumet Farm's Citation and jockey Eddie Arcaro, set dead aim today on a few more marks in their quest for the coveted triple crown—America's diadem of three-year-old racing supremacy.

While old Louisville slowly returned to normalcy after Citation and Arcaro showed how a horse race should be run Saturday, all eyes were turned on the approaching Preakness and Belmont stakes. The Preakness will be run at Pimlico in Baltimore May 15. The Belmont stakes at New York follows June 12, and completes the triple crown lineup. The 74th derby had been tagged for Citation months in advance and the Calumet speedster merely followed the script before some 90,000 at Churchill Downs. He collied his stablemate, Coaltown, coming into the stretch and then won by three and a half lengths. Ben Whitaker's My Requet, heavily backed by Texas money, was third and then followed Billings, Grandpere and Escadru, strung out. Citation's time was 2:05 2/5 over the slow track.
