Oaks Sell Hafey To Cleveland, Get Two New Players

(By the Associated Press)
The heat was on as Will Hafey stepped into the pitcher's box last night in Sacramento. A few hours earlier, the Oakland club announced it had sold Hafey, for 1949 delivery, to the Cleveland Indians for about $100,000 and the immediate delivery by Cleveland of Les Webber and George Metkovich.

Hafey, 26-year-old right-hander, had to make his sale look good. He did it. He pitched the Oaks to a 5 to 1 victory over the solons. He gave up only four hits and, in his own behalf, socked a double and a single.

Until the ninth Hafey had the Sacs shut out. Jennings then singled, Grace doubled and Russell hit a long fly to right that enabled Jennings to race home.

San Francisco stayed in first place by reason of the 9-0 shut-out hurled by Deyer, the reformed Hollywoodian. Post limited the Portland Beavers to two hits to register his fifth win of the year.

In contrast to Perez' pitching was the miserable showing of the Beaver hurlers. They gave up 12 bases on balls. The Sacs scored four runs on one hit off Sierra in the sixth frame.

Los Angeles scored its second successive extra-inning victory over Hollywood by an identical score of 1 to 3. Last night, as the night before, a home run ended the agony. Dallesandro, the little man with the big shoulders, socked one out of the park in the first half of the 11th inning.

GOPHER BITES GOLFER
DENVER, May 6—(AP)—A new hazard has been added to Willis Case Golf Course—Gophers.

Bob Rounds stepped in a gopher hole. The gopher charged out and hole. The gopher charged out and bit Rounds' ankle before the Denver University student could kill it with his putter. Today, Rounds was in the hospital with an infected ankle.

New Material of Red Sox Hitting Winning Stride

(By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Boston Red Sox' $375,000 deals for Junior Stephens, Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder finally begin to look like good business.

Red Sox fans had their misgivings when wins failed to follow the cash outlay. Up to five days ago, neither Kramer nor Kinder had thrown a ball for Boston. Stephens, the boy who was supposed to knock holes in Fenway Park's leftfield wall, was hitting a sorry 200.

Events of the last few days have served to change that picture. Kramer won himself a ball game Saturday and yesterday Stephens hammered an 11th inning homer that gave Kinder a relief decision.

Stephens' hitting surge is the most heartening development in the Boston camp. After mashing a homer opening day off Marchildon of the A's, his power disappeared. Sunday he banged a home run off Page of the Yankees and he had two hits in each of the last three games.

Still far below par at .255, Stephens is beginning to find the Fenway range. Yesterday's clout off Trout was his most telling blow for Boston. It accounted for the Sox' 4-3 win over Detroit, their fourth straight victory.

Pirates Maintain Pace
The Pittsburgh Pirates continue to sizzle in the national, rolling to their sixth straight win by a 3-2 shute out Boston. It was their first test against a club that is supposed to be a pennant contender and they came off in fine shape. They now lead the second place New York Giants by a full game.

Cincinnati's Peterson, maling his first start of the season after five bullpen jobs, limited New York to five hits in fashioning a 5-2 victory. Homers by McCarthy, playing first for the injured Mize, and Thomson provided the Giants' scores. McCarthy's two-run boot in the first put starter Sheldon Jones on the ropes. Hatton hit a home run for the Reds in the third.

Rowe's Thumb Broken
The Phillies won a game from Chicago, 13-9, but lost the services of pitcher Schoolboy Rowe for at least two months. Rowe suffered a fractured thumb on his left hand when struck by a liner off Lowrey's bat. Although Rowe was hit freely before the accident, the Phils rallied to win for Nahem, the ex-Bushwick who was picked up as a free agent last week.

Rain washed out the Brooklyn-St. Louis game in the national and the St. Louis-New York and Cleveland-Philadelphia games in the American.

Masterson held Chicago to four hits in a night game at Washington, won by the Senators, 6-0. Kozur struck the big blow for Washington, a three-run double with the bases loaded off Moulder in the fourth inning.

MEAN TRICK
LONDON, May 6—(AP)—Angus Harper, 26, got nine months in jail today. He pleaded guilty to lacing the family butter with a preparation for killing garden pests.

Police said he wanted to annoy his in-laws.
