

Chrysler Strikers Prepare for Long Siege

(Continued From Page One) James B. McNally of Wayne County (Detroit) to take action. But McNally said he needed a formal complaint from the police department, and Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy insisted he could not only be asked to do so by a private citizen.

Should the walkout stretch into weeks, the UAW should be well set to lend financial assistance to Chrysler employees. Its executive board yesterday approved plans to assess a million auto workers across the country 50 cents a week in June and $1 weekly in July.

Strikers stand to lose $800,000 a day in wages as long as the dispute lasts, it has been estimated. Chrysler will be out about 5,000 cars and trucks daily. No Federal Intervention

The Chrysler production workers in 16 plants average about $1.50 an hour now. It was the auto industry's first major strike since November, 1945, when the UAW-CIO walked out at General Motors Corp. to begin a 113-day siege.

It was the first big strike at Chrysler since 1939. In Washington, Federal Conciliation Chief Cyrus S. Ching discussed the Chrysler strike with aides but his office said there were no plans to call the two sides to the Capital for settlement talks.

(There also appeared to be little change of any government move to get a court injunction to halt the strike as was done in the coal and rail disputes. Federal officials say the strike injunction power is limited to labor disputes threatening the national "health and safety.")

Stassen-Dewey Debate Plans Being Shaped

(Continued From Page One) night his earlier demand that Communist organizations be outlawed "in America and all free-dom loving countries". He spoke before less than 1,500 persons. "I realize full well that there are those who disagree with me in this position," he said. "President Truman, Governor Dewey and Henry Wallace all continue to believe that the blessings of legality should be extended to the Communist organization."

He then referred directly to his opponent in the Oregon primary. He said "I am certain that Governor Dewey is sincere in his position, but I submit that he is mistaken."

Dewey Argues Food

At Pendleton, Gov. Dewey asserted America's food production is the only realistic weapon against the spread of Communism in the world. "In our foreign relations we must use food as a positive force for peace," he said. "Food is certainly on a par with guns and ships and airplanes. So far as the average citizen abroad is concerned, it is ever so much more important."

The New York executive predicted the battle against Communism is going to be a long, tough one. "It is not going to be over in a few months or a few years. Communism has its best chance with people who are hungry, poorly clothed and ill-housed," he said.

Stassen remains in Portland for another rally tonight, then heads up state. The Dewey caravan moves toward Portland. The New Yorker will inspect the McNary dam site on the Columbia River today and be at Hood River tonight.

Thye Aids Stassen Sen. Edward Thye, who inherited Minnesota's governorship in 1943 when Stassen resigned, today joined the Oregon primary campaign battle. Thye flew here from Washington, D. C., last night and today took the stump in support of Stassen in his Republican presidential nomination contest with Dewey.

The senator spoke this morning at Vanport college and was booked for a Woodburn Rotary Club luncheon at noon. Robert Elliott, Stassen's Oregon campaign manager, said Thye would speak at several communities in the middle valley this afternoon.

Hope for Peace Not Increased, Truman Says

(Continued from Page 1) the prospects now for permanent peace. Mr. Truman said he thought that there had been no basic change in the prospects.

Will Work Through U. N. He remarked that he has said repeatedly that this nation will work through the United Nations and that there ultimately will be peace throughout the world.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Truman said the note Ambassador Smith handed Foreign Minister Molotov had his approval and that of his cabinet. Someone asked if he and the cabinet had considered the last paragraph of Smith's note.

(The Russians interpreted that part as an invitation to two-power talks.) The President replied that the matter had been considered from the beginning to the young truly. "Then he added that he did not see that the exchange of notes had increased materially the prospects for peace."

Jews, Arabs Poised For All-Out War (Continued From Page One) Jordan and perhaps other Arab states were camped near the borders of Palestine. The Arab leaders, however, were split by dissension. They were worried by the possibility of upheavals at home in case of defeat. And in each country there was powerful opposition ready to spring at the Arabs regimes if they refused to invade Palestine.

The United Nations discussed a U. S. proposal that a high commissioner be named for Palestine to take over when the British leave. In Washington, President Truman parried a question whether the United States will recognize the new Jewish state, saying he will cross that bridge when he comes to it.

Alcoholics Cured With Use of 'Truth Serum'

Candidates Get Bids To Talk at 'Town Meeting'

(Continued From Page One) offices have also been asked to be represented, either in person or by their supporters, Mrs. Springer explained. The women's committee arranging the meeting includes Mrs. Edna E. Helgeson, Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, Mrs. W. J. Huth, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. S. A. Layman, Mrs. Roy Cummings, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, and Mrs. Springer.

British Crack Down On Black Gas Market

LONDON — (AP) — The government has proposed drastic new penalties to clean up Britain's thriving "black petrol" market. They include fines totaling up to $4,000 plus two years imprisonment for motorists or gasoline dealers caught diverting commercial fuel to private use. The owner of a car could be barred from the roads for a year. If he sold the car after the offense he could be assessed his value. A dealer could be put out of business for
