

Chiefs Take On K-Falls Here Sunday

To all-beaten ball clubs, but nevertheless still in the running for the first half of the Southern Oregon Baseball League, will tangle on Finlay field here Sunday, when the Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs take on the Klamath Falls Red Sox at 2 p. m.

While Roseburg has won only its first game, the other three were lost by very close margins, which makes the chiefs dangerous in any tilt. Klamath Falls, likewise, served notice they are nobody's doormat, when they held the strong, league-leading Central Point Caney Studs to a 3-2 victory in a 10-inning game last Sunday.

Results of the other contests last Sunday showed the Grants Pass Merchants in second place after beating Crescent City 5 to 2. The Grants Pass Old Timers bested the Medford Craters at Medford 5 to 4. Ashland, rapidly climbing in the circuit, beat Central Point by a slim 3-to-1 in a five-inning contest ended by rain.

Paul Gehrmann, former coast and major leaguer, pitcher for the Cheney Studs, outpitched Bert Krohn of Klamath Falls in the 10-inning thriller. Both pitchers gave up seven hits and one walk, but the Studs' right hander fanned nine to Krohn's six. Bob Hamilton, Studs' outfielder, scored the winning run in the top of the tenth after he had singled. Alex McDonald hit the left field fence for a double to score Hamilton.

Another thriller last Sunday was the Old Timers contest against Medford. With the score tied in the ninth, the Old Timers finally pushed across a run, then held the Craters scoreless in the last half.

Cochman Doug Taitt of the Umpqua Chiefs is bemoaning the fact that his team is not getting an opportunity to practice. The pitching staff needs to be strengthened, and the entire team needs some hitting practice to get in proper shape. The locals, nevertheless, are assuring local fans their time will come, and are gunning for a victory against the Red Sox.

Track Meet Billed For Grade Pupils

Students in the sixth grade and younger in Douglas County will square off for the opening event of the Roseburg Benchwarmers Club track meet Saturday at 1 p. m. on Finlay Field.

Just how many schools outside Roseburg will be represented is not known, as only a couple of county entries had been received yesterday by Hod Turner, who is in charge of the meet.

The track events, however, will be run off as scheduled, rain or shine, regardless of the number entered. Ribbons will be given for first, second and third places and a suitable trophy will be awarded the team winning the most points by the Benchwarmers.

Events will include the 35-yard, 50-yard and 75-yard dashes; shuttle relay, 300 yards, each contestant to run 75 yards; relay, 240 yards, each contestant to run 60 yards; field events, including shot put, running broad jump, high jump, football throw and baseball throw for distance.

Competent officials from the Roseburg schools and the Benchwarmers Club will direct the meet. There will be no admission charge, and students are asked to bring their parents for the day.

While Tuesday was the deadline for the event, an attempt will be made to handle as many late entries as possible, said Turner.

One estimate is that the amount of salt in the world's oceans is enough to cover the United States with a layer a mile and a half deep.

Yoncalla High Baseball Team Downs Sutherlin

Yoncalla High School defeated Sutherlin 9 to 3 in a baseball game Monday at Yoncalla. Catcher Ritchey sparked the Yoncalla team with his outstanding performance behind the bat, and by hitting .750. Allen struck out 12, making a total of 50 strike-outs in six games.

Szasz, Knox To Clash On Mat Card

Douglas County wrestling followers are looking for a brilliant display of grappling fireworks at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night when Al Szasz, the dynamic little Hungarian, and Glen Knox, the Tennessee veteran, clash in the semi-final attraction of Matchmaker Don Owen's weekly show.

Although the "battle of champions," World Triplet Bruno Angelo and Coast Champ Gordon Hessel, gets top billing in their one-hour skirmish, local fans have seen Szasz and Knox tangle before and know what to expect. In their last meeting, Szasz whip-locked the head-shaven southerner into submission after a torrid tilt. Knox is out to even the score this time and has warned Szasz he will hand the fast-moving wrestler a "fancy whipping."

The one-fall opener will also pack considerable interest. Just Johnson, although he lost to Frankie Hart in his last appearance here, will be a formidable opponent for Alex Kasabaski, the Pole from Pittsburgh who will be making his local debut.

Johnson, the Seattle matmaster, is considered one of the finest grappling veterans still in action in the Pacific Northwest. Kasabaski, naturally, is a villain, and although a Pole, requests that he be billed as a Russian so the fans will hate him the more.

Angelo and Hessel carry the weight, however. Although Angelo's world junior heavyweight crown and Hessel's coast light heavyweight title will not be at stake, considerable prestige will be on the block.

The tough mid-westerner specializes in a hammerlock and a half-crab, but will "throw the book" at Hessel by the use of illegal tactics if he finds himself stymied by Hessel's technique.

Hessel will have to depend on speed, agility and the use of two well-executed holds to match the brutal action of the champion. His reverse flying head scissors and "trigger" hold proved effective here last week when he defeated Jack Kiser, a former coast titleholder, in impressive style. Elton Owen will be on deck to referee all three bouts. The opener gets under way promptly at 8:30 p. m.

Fenton Will Battle Ogden On Next Card

Babe Fenton, 125-pound Sutherlin boxer, who scored a one-round knockout over Billy Dove on the professional fight card here two weeks ago, will take on Jimmy Ogden, Portland flash, in one of two eight-round main events at the armory next Tuesday night.

A four-round curtain raiser is slated for 8:30 p. m. Another fight on the card will see Dick Wolf, Klamath Falls whirlwind, against Dean Abney, Salem puncher, in the 145-pound class. In the second eight-round main event of the evening.

Bob Nazelrod, Roseburg will meet Chris Holmes, Salem, in a six-round special event, and two four-round preliminaries will round out the card, according to Promoters Bill Olsen and Rudy Schlotthauer.

Fenton made such short work of Dove on the recent fight card, that not much could be determined of the latter's ability as a fighter. Babe, a local well-driller when not fighting, had announced that he was out to show Roseburg folks that he was not "washed up." He waded into Dove and had the Portland youth on the canvas a couple of times before the latter finally stayed down for the count.

Fenton, at 25, claims he is on the comeback trail and is gunning for some fights with top-notch men in his class. He says he has a wife and four children and has got to make good.

Wolfe, also, was a victor by the knockout route, beating Tony Reeves in the second round. Wolfe recently fought Abney at an eight-round draw in a torrid match at Yakima, so the bout is billed as a grudge rematch.

Tickets selling for $2.40 reserved seats and $1.50 general admission, are now on sale at the J. V. Sporting Goods store, Grand Cafe and Wally's Pastime in Roseburg and in Sutherlin at The Pastime. The promoters announce that the reserved seat situation will be under control for this match, with all seats numbered and sectioned.

Good Milk Cows Need Grass, Grain

Dairy cows tend to turn up their noses at grain feeds as soon as they are turned out on early grass pastures, but continued high milk production depends upon this supplemental feed, states H. P. Ewalt, O. S. C. extension dairyman.

Cows will graze from 100 to 150 pounds of grass daily. Ewalt points out, especially if it is lush and there is plenty of it, this amount of green feed will furnish food enough to maintain the cow and enable her to produce from one to one and one-half pound of butterfat daily. For sustained production above these figures, cows will require a supplemental ration of grain.

On abundant early spring pastures particularly, cows are inclined to fill themselves on grass and refuse the grain supplement. They usually resume normal grain consumption, however, after they have been on pasture a week or two. Ewalt warns dairymen not to reduce grain ration and then neglect to raise it when cows will again consume the grain necessary to keep up top milk production.

Feeding trials at O. S. C. with cows on irrigated and grass pastures have proved the necessity and value of feeding according to production, Ewalt states. Station circular of information number 310, entitled, "Feeding Grain to Dairy Cows on Irrigated Ladino Clover and Grass Pasture," contains tables designed to indicate how much grain supplement to feed cows producing various amounts of milk. Some cows will not eat as much grain as recommended, but for maximum production successful dairymen made every effort to get them to eat the amount required. Ewalt states that 9 or 10 per cent digestible protein is about the practical limit in the grain mixture. Higher concentrations will not give proportionate increases in milk. Cows are fed individually on the basis of their production.

Irish-Born Woman Awaits 114th Birthday

LYMAN, Wash. (AP)—An Irish-born great-great-great-grandmother is waiting quietly at her home here for her 114th birthday June 6.

She is "Grandma" Frankie Lockaby, who recalls hearing the rumble of Civil War cannon while living in the Georgia hills. Her children to the seventh generation scattered throughout the United States testify to her age.

"Grandma" Lockaby had 16 sons and daughters and one of the daughters had 14 offspring. Her grandchildren have great-grandchildren.

"Grandma" came across country from Georgia recently in an automobile. She plans to spend her remaining days in this little Northwest Washington town where her time is spent mostly quilting—without the aid of glasses.

MAIN EVENTER—Babe Fenton, 125 pounds, Sutherlin well driller, will fight Jimmy Ogden, Portland flash, in one of the two eight-round main events slated for Tuesday night's Armory boxing card. This will be the second fight card sponsored by Bill Olsen and Rudy Schlotthauer.

Pargeters Will Attend Fire Insurance Meet

R. E. Pargeter, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Pargeter will leave Roseburg Saturday, May 22, to attend the annual Oregon Mutual Fire Insurance Co. convention Sunday through Tuesday, May 23-25, at the Gearhart Hotel near Seaside.

R. E. Pargeter reports that at the convention he will hear talks by prominent insurance executives of the Pacific Coast. Seth Thomas, insurance commissioner of Oregon, will speak, as well as Mr. Wagner of the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau.

Other talks are to be made by Robert Dial of Dallas, Texas; Charles Pierce of Los Angeles, Calif.; Boyce Standard of Seattle, Wash.; Jerry Altnow of Salt Lake City, and Ashley Dickinson of Boise.

Timber Workers Get Pay for Forced Lay-Offs

TACOMA, May 21.—(AP)—Seven thousand timber workers who were required to take vacations without pay in 1946 are entitled to unemployment compensation, Superior Judge W. A. Richmond ruled here.

The men, employees of six lumber companies in the Tacoma area, were required to take the time off in August, 1946, in keeping with an agreement made by the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union (AFL) and mill operators.

The agreement stipulated that men working more than one year would receive vacation with pay but those working less than a year would receive one week without pay.

The mills closed down for a two-week period to give the employees a mass vacation. The State Employment Security Department granted compensation to the workers who received no pay. The lumber companies appealed, the appeal was rejected by the department and the matter was taken to Superior Court.
