

Maricopa
Maricopa Camp Fire group met Wednesday at the music room of the Rose school and made plans for the Mother-Daughter tea. Cynthia Ann Powers received a leather-bound birthday poem book for being voted the most trustworthy and dependable girl of the group during the last year. Girls present were Marcia Moe, Roberta John, Joan Sue Wissing, Ann Powers, Carolyn Pittson, Carol Neureiter, Kay Emery, Marlene Emmitt, Sharon Fingelos, Aletha Meade, Denise Coon and the guardian, Mrs. Louis Neureiter.

Mrs. Paul Moe and daughter, Marcia, and Mrs. L. L. Powers and daughter, Ann, entertained the group and their mothers at a tea Saturday afternoon at the Moe home at 314 East Washington street.

The group, under the direction of Mrs. Louis Neureiter, presented songs. The girls participated in a contest similar to the radio program, "What's the name of that song." Roberta Johns played a piano solo, "Theme From Tschokowski's 'Concerto.'" Denise Coon sang, "Pal of My Cradle Days," accompanied by Mrs. Neureiter.

The tea table was decorated in the Camp Fire colors of red, white and blue. Blue and white iris were used as a floral centerpiece, flanked by blue tapers. Mrs. Louis Neureiter, guardian, and Robert Johnson, president of the group, presided at the tea table.

Special guests were Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, daughter, Marcia; Mrs. Paul Helweg and daughter, Paula. Lovely corsages were presented by the girls of the group to the mothers and special guests.

The Edenhower Blue Birds spent a very enjoyable afternoon distributing May baskets, magazines and bouquets to the patients of the "Old Folks Hospital," Sunday, May 2, 1948.

While visiting with some of the patients, the girls were very amazed to learn that one elderly gentleman is going to celebrate his 100th birthday this fall.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Patricia Niday, Ann Greenquist, Sandra Hayes, LaVelle Gladwill, Lucille and Adele Gibson, Kathleen Melhoff, Mary Freeman and a guest, Sandra Zenor.

The girls were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Gladwill, and Mrs. George Niday.

The Edenhower Blue Birds met at the home of Mrs. Melhoff on the Calkins road for their weekly meeting, May 5, 1948.

A short business meeting was held, at which time a candy sale was suggested to help raise money to buy more craft material. The girls then worked on their pictures made out of copper sheeting, and after a social period of games, the girls were served refreshments by their hostess, assisted by her daughter, Kathleen.

These girls attending the meeting were: Sandra Hayes, LaVelle Gladwill, Patricia Niday, Lucille and Adele Gibson, Mary Freeman, Ann Greenquist, Marlene Sommers, Florence Thomason, Susan Snyder, Joan Hardick and their leader, Mrs. Gladwill.

The Edenhower Bluebirds sponsored a candy sale in the school lunch room May 12th to help finance material for their craft. The weekly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Gibson. After a short business meeting to report on the sale, the girls worked on their yarn dolls. All members were present.

Nawadaha
The Nawadaha Camp Fire from Rose school attended their first council fire on April 29. Each member of the group received her trail seeker's rank.

On Friday, April 30, the Active Club, sponsors of the group, entertained the girls at a skating party at Winchester. The Active Club furnished the transportation and following the skating served refreshments of hot dogs

Floods Deal Damage To Alaska Areas

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, May 21.—Interior Alaska is suffering flood damage as a result of the ice break-ups in northern rivers. The village of Nenana was under four feet of water and river-side residents of Fairbanks have been driven from their homes by floods.

In Edmonton, Alberta, the western command said a flash flood Sunday washed out a bridge closing the Alaska highway at Mile 683, 1,200 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Eight sections of the 15-span, 212-foot bridge over the lower Rancheria River between Watson Lake and White Horse, both in the Yukon, were swept away in the floods. The river rose more than 10 feet.

Army engineers rebuilding the bridge hope to have the road opened to traffic May 26.

Sources of domestic water for both Fairbanks and Nenana have been put out of order or the water polluted.

George Gale, Alaska railroad telegrapher at Nenana, reported that every store and home in the sourdough and Indian village of 300 had at least a few inches of water over its floors. The water was still rising Wednesday night.

Mistake May Give Liberty From Prison

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—(AP) A case of mistaken identity may free 35-year old Howard Smith from Holmesburg Prison.

Smith has served two years on larceny charge. But Thursday, Mrs. Areda Woodward faced him in police court and said:

"I am sorry but I made a mistake when I identified you as one of the men who took my money."

It was on the identification of Mrs. Woodward that Smith and Edward Bryant were convicted of tricking the woman out of $112 in a confidence game.

Smith denied the charges but received no support from Bryant. Before Bryant's recent death in prison he gave Smith the nickname and description of his accomplice.

The police permitted Smith to search the records but he found no trace of the man.

Last month in Holmesburg Prison, Smith spotted 42-year old Foy Faison in the exercise yard. Faison was serving time on a separate larceny charge.

County Prison Agent Charles M. Gibbs said Smith raised such a racket they took both of them to City Hall. There Mrs. Woodward identified Faison as the man who had tricked her.

Bill to Regulate Liquor Ads Killed by Committee

WASHINGTON, May 20.—(AP) The Senate Commerce Committee today killed a bill to regulate liquor advertising.

By a vote of 6 to 5, it rejected a proposal to amend the Federal Trade Commission Act to make "misleading" any advertisement and coca cola. The girls had a most enjoyable evening. Those attending were: Amaryllis Gladwill, Joan Phillips, Nancy Neureiter, Mary Margaret Cobb, Carol J. Berke, Dixie Lee Bell, Janete Sherwood, Nonda Newport, Barbara Pattison, Mrs. Howard Gladwill and Mrs. Charles Russell, guardian.

A most interesting meeting was held Tuesday afternoon, May 4, at the home of Mrs. Russell on Mill street. After the regular business meeting, the girls made gifts for the mothers for Mother's Day. Lovely refreshments were served to the girls by Mrs. Russell.

Barkley Selected As Democratic Keynoter

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—(AP) Democratic leaders today selected Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky as keynoter for their July 12 national convention. Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas was named permanent chairman.

Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, said in reply to a question the selections were not aimed at appeasing the Southern bloc opposed to President Truman's civil rights program.

"They are both very liberal men," McGrath said, "who supported in every way the program of Presidents Roosevelt and Truman."

"Recognition is due both for long and valiant service to the Democratic party," he added.
