

Carter Gets Nod Again For Sheriff

On the face of unofficial and incomplete returns from Friday's primary election, O. T. Carter appears to have scored a comparatively easy victory for the Republican nomination for sheriff. L. R. McClintock, chief of police at Myrtle Creek, was a close second with Billy Mohr, Roseburg, a poor third.

time has been wrong. We seem to have been all thumbs.

IN Washington, the House of Representatives passes the Mundt-Nixon anti-Communist bill (which Stassen and Dewey debated in Oregon) by a vote of about five to one. The vote in the Senate, when the bill gets there, is expected to be much closer.

It would be all right with this writer to jail all card-holding Communists until ships can be found to send them to Russia — which is where they ought to be. If they're so hot for Communism, why don't they head for the Soviet Union, where they can enjoy its benefits to the full?

This writer doubts, however, if more anti-Communist laws will do any good. At the last count, we had about 27 such laws already. It will take more than LAW to handle Communism. Common sense will help a lot. It is this writer's notion that anybody who would even consider Communism as an alternative for Americanism ought to have his head examined.

Unander, Newbry Win Favor

Newbry for Secretary of State and Unander for State Treasurer were favored by Republican voters in Friday's nominating election, according to unofficial returns received by the News-Review. ### Wilson-Wood Contest Close Douglas County's Democratic voters were nearly evenly divided in their primary vote Friday for selection of a nominee for the office of United States Senator. Dr. Louis A. Wood, Eugene, and M. J. Wilson, Portland, were in a neck-and-neck contest, Wood holding a slight edge in unofficial and incomplete returns tabulated by the News-Review. Winner of the nomination will oppose Senator Guy Cordon at the November election.

For U. S. Representative from the Fourth Congressional District, Democratic voters in Douglas County prefer Tanton over Sahlstrom. Precinct results were reported as follows:
