Mrs. S. J. Cooper Entertains Bridge Club on Wednesday

Mrs. S. J. Cooper very graciously entertained her bridge club at a one o'clock dessert-luncheon at her attractive home in Laurelwood. Yellow and blue Dutch Iris formed the centerpiece, while bouquets of tulips and rhododendrons were arranged about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Clyde Fullerton and Mrs. E. A. Pearson, guests, and Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. A. C. Henninger, Mrs. Edwin Nolte, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Roy Cummins, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostesses, Mrs. Cooper.

The Weather Bureau is being swamped with applications for jobs in its weather stations in the Arctic. Even the fact that the thermometer often sets down to forty below without any effort, doesn't chill the enthusiasm of the volunteers! Apparently there are plenty of people who want to "get away from it all" . . . and there's no place like the Arctic for that feeling. It's quiet as a ghost's shadow. There's no place to go, so you can save your money in large chunks, no telephones, sirens, month-end bills or rushing off to work! I guess it's pretty wonderful . . . but it still leaves me cold.

A little more cold cash still needed to send our fine high school band to help represent all of us at the Portland Rose Festival. Slip Paul Kleth or The Chamber of Commerce a buck or a fann and earn the thanks of a gang of snappy performers.

A Los Angeles woman shot her husband, because she was annoyed by his grammar. Now he's probably annoyed by her punctuation. For real "straight shooting" service, you can't go wrong at COBREM MOTORS, Inc., 114 N. Rose street! We're equipped with the latest in Bear Wheel Balancing and Alligning Equipment and our operator, Henry Krohn, has a shiny certificate of efficiency from the factory—he knows his stuff. When your wheels are not aligned you are driving hand-in-hand with DANGER! Phone: 408 and make arrangements with our Service Manager, C. B. Laws.
