Marry in Albany, May 16th

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Walker

A spring wedding uniting in marriage, Miss Marybelle Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Russell of Albany and Gordon E. Walker of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Walker, was solemnized at the First Baptist Church of Albany at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 16th. Dr. Edgar B. Hart of Corvallis, the ceremony was a double ring service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown designed on princess lines, train. Her shoulders were gathered full at the elbow and fitted from the wrist and finished in a pearl trim that had adorned her mother's wedding dress. Adding interest to the back of the gown were small ruffles to form a bustle effect. The fingertip veil was circular in style and trimmed in Chantilly lace. A bandeau of orange blossoms held the veil in place. She carried cream white roses and Stephenotis centered with a large orchid.

Mrs. Robert G. Lewis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was a turquoise shade crepe with fitted lines. Turquoise neck line was trimmed with jeweled buttons. She wore long mitts to match her dress and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and yellow iris centered with gardenias.

The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Neuman of Corvallis, and Miss Beverly Wilson of Medford. The identical dresses of aqua tulle were be-fante 7 d caught at either side of the hip with pink bows. Their long mitts were pink and white nosegays of pink and white carnations with pink ribbon.

Miss Jane Luther was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's cake was three tier, topped by a miniature bride and groom figurine under a white wedding bell.

Mrs. Fred E. Taylor of Lake Grove, Oregon, cut the bride's cake assisted by Mr. M. V. Neuman of Corvallis.

Mrs. Edgar B. Luther and Mrs. Paul Clausen presided at the punch bowls.

Miss Thelma Clem served the groom's cake.

The girls serving the guests were the Misses: Dorothy Vehrs, Arlene Grotenhuis, Betty Kizer, Evelyn Neuman, Elaine Gething and Mrs. Jack Ratcliff. About two hundred guests were present.

Miss Betty Lou Garner played several selections on the piano during the reception.

The bridal couple traveled by motor to Southern California and plan to be gone two weeks.

The bride's going away costume was a fitted wool suit dress of robin's egg blue shade. Her big black hat worn off the face was trimmed with a pink rose and bud and black velvet ribbon. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker will be at home June 1st in Roseburg where Mr. Walker is employed by the E. K. Wood Lumber Company as an accountant.

The bride was graduated from Albany High School and attended Oregon State where she was graduated in 1947. Since then she has been employed as secretary to Mr. McCormack, superintendent of city schools.

The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Oregon State. He served in the Army Air Corps during World War II. After he received his discharge he returned to Oregon State and was graduated in 1947.

Little Miss Joy Steward was flower girl. Her floor length dress was white organza adorned with tiny pink flowers and aqua ribbon at the hem and on the yoke. She carried a small basket matching in color and wore a wristlet of pink rosebuds.

Wayne Howe of Crater Lake, acted as best man.

The ushers were, John Kliff-forth of Portland, Jack Ratcliff and Leo Schlegel of Albany.

Miss Chris Gilbert of Berkeley, California, and Miss Barbara Walters of Portland lighted the candles. Their dresses were of yellow crepe and they wore mitts that matched their dresses.

Mrs. Don Hayne played the wedding music.

Thomas Baker sang, "Until" and "Always."

Miss Mabel Luther sang a hymn of dedication following the prayer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of rose color crepe and her flowers were Vanda orchids. Her small off the face hat was rose-color and ribbon trimmed.

Large baskets of white gladioli, white snapdragons and white lilies with a background of ferns and candelabra was the setting for the wedding party.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride couple joined them in greeting the guests in the church parlor. Many friends from Roseburg, Corvallis and Portland attended the wedding. Baskets of white lilies decorated the rooms.

Miss Jane Luther was in charge of the guest book.
