UNITED WORKERS CLASS MEETING IS HELD ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Earl Rhoads entertained the United Workers Class of the First Christian Church Friday. Mrs. C. G. Stanton, president, presided at the business session and Mrs. Raymond Clark opened the meeting with a prayer. A letter from Mrs. Anna Broadway, guest at the Northwestern Christian Home, formerly a member of the class, and a poem describing the Home and written by the late Mrs. Minnie M. Preston were read to the members.

Arrangements were made for the Bible School Train, which will begin its run July 4, in an attempt to counteract the usual summer slump in attendance. Mrs. Lillie Farmer, Captain of the Blues, and Mrs. Ethel White, Captain of the Reds, have planned a passenger contest for the class. All members and visitors are urged to "get aboard" every Sunday.

During the program Mrs. Snyder presented prizes for a kitchen contest to Mrs. Noyer, Mrs. White and Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rose and Mrs. A. C. Thompson served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Parslow, Mrs. Enlow and Mrs. Clark, guests and the following members: Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Rhoads, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Ingels, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. White, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Blaschke, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Noyer.

The next meeting will be August 6 at the home of Mrs. Ada Davis with a program under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Church, and Mrs. Raymond Clark and Mrs. James Miller in charge of the refreshments.
