

U. S. Tells Poland To Transfer Her Kick to Russia

WASHINGTON, July 8. — (AP) — The United States yesterday rejected Poland's protest against policies of the Western powers in Germany. It advised Poland to complain to Russia if dissatisfied with the way things are going in Europe.

Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett told Polish Ambassador Winiewicz:

"If certain countries... claim that their interests are not sufficiently taken into account by the program planned for Western Germany, their complaint should not be addressed to the United States government but to the government primarily responsible for preventing these countries from cooperating in the general recovery program for Europe."

On June 18, Poland filed a formal protest against the Western Allies' plan for building up Western Germany in connection with the Marshall plan, and permitting a measure of "home rule" for that area of Germany.

The decisions were taken independently after long and fruitless efforts to get an agreement with Russia on treatment of Germany as a whole.

Poland protested that the decisions violated the Potsdam agreements with Russia and failed to take into account the interests of various European nations.

Women Object To Home for 'Aged' Because of Name

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 8. — (AP) — How are you going to have an old age home for women when none of the eligible will admit to being eligible?

This was the problem the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs faced at its convention here yesterday.

Miss Marian Argo of Tenino, Wash., chairman of the committee to study the feasibility of establishing a Federation home for the aged, brought up the subject.

Miss Argo declared the very name of the project was "most unpopular."

In the discussion delegates hesitated each time they came to the words "old age."

Finally, Miss Mary Essary of Lake Worth, Fla., moved the name be changed to "elderly." This brought some applause but not much.

Mrs. Florine Carney of Port Arthur, a past Texas State president, introduced the word "re-

Weather in June Noteworthy In Several Respects

Local weather for June was outstanding in several ways, reports Thomas A. Hill, Jr., official in charge of the U. S. weather bureau, Roseburg, June 1948 had 1.78 inches of rain, which is .67 inches over normal. The average temperature was 65.5 degrees, or 3 over normal. Two thunderstorms occurred during the month — the normal for a year — and the maximum wind was 24 — within 2 m.p.h. of the all-time record for any June.

The temperature soared to 95.3 on June 8, but this figure was short of the all-time high of 106 on June 24, 1925. The lowest temperature reading was 47, compared with the lowest all-time June temperature of 36 on June 19, 1883.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 76.6, compared with a normal of 75.1; the mean minimum was 54.3, compared with a normal of 49.9, and the mean temperature was 65.5, compared with a normal mean of 62.5. The mean for June last year was 61.0. The warmest mean was 68.2 in June 1926, the coldest 58.1 in 1883.

The temperature rose above 90 degrees three times, on June 8, June 28 and 29, when it reached 95 degrees.

While the month was wetter than usual, at 1.78 inches of rain, June of last year had 3.57 inches, but the wettest was in 1888 with 5.94 inches. The driest was in 1883, when only .01 inches fell. Three days last month had more than 25 inches of rain, eight days more than .01, and two days with a trace of rain.

There were 10 clear days in June, seven partly cloudy, 13 cloudy. Thunderstorms occurred on June 6 and 8.

Farm Group Asks Price Control Vow In Demo Platform

PHILADELPHIA, July 8. — (AP) — The American Farm Bureau Federation asked the Democratic party yesterday to pledge a new governmental attack on the problem of skyrocketing prices.

Opening hearings on the 1948 Democratic platform, H. E. Slusher, a member of the board of the powerful farm organization, proposed specifically that congress set up a national monetary commission to find ways of stabilizing prices.

"A democracy of free enterprise cannot flourish and may not even survive continuing fluctuation of the general price level," said Slusher. He is president of the Farm Bureau in President Truman's home state of Missouri.

Thus the farm leader brought up an issue with which Democrats hope to win votes in November. Mr. Truman and other Democratic leaders have blamed the Republican Congress for swelling prices since wartime controls were dropped.

The Democratic platform drafters got off to a quiet, friendly start. But beneath it was an air of expectancy. Sharp and perhaps bitter battles appeared to be shaping up over civil rights and labor planks.

U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the 18-member committee, told newsmen Mr. Truman undoubtedly will be consulted on the document before it is presented to the party's convention next week.

"I think he should be consulted before the platform is presented formally to the convention," Myers added.

WHERE BAD MONEY'S GOOD

BANGKOK — (AP) — Counterfeiters are so good in Siam that experts have trouble detecting forgeries. So said a criminal court judge, dismissing a charge of a village medicine man had 49 false notes for the purchase of roots, bark and leaves be used for doctoring.

Since Bank of Siam experts had difficulty telling a counterfeit note from a real one, said the judge, you couldn't expect villagers to spot the bad ones.

But most delegates still took coolly to the idea, and the convention voted 499 to 329 to forget the whole thing.

Red Fails to Bar Prayer From Council's Record

NEW YORK, July 7. — (AP) — A prayer caused a flurry of argument in New York City's Council yesterday.

Two councilmen, Benjamin J. Davis, Manhattan Communist, and Eugene P. Connolly, American Labor Party member, protested the inclusion of the invocation prayer in the minutes of the Council meeting.

In the prayer, Rev. Dr. George Albert Simons, had expressed hope that "atheistic, Marxist, Communism" would never threaten New York City.

The council voted 14 to 2 to include the prayer in the record.

Card Dealer Held On Murder Count

PENDLETON, Ore., July 8. — (AP) — James High, 34-year-old Umatilla card dealer, yesterday was charged with second degree murder in the death of a fellow employee July 3 at Umatilla.

The information, signed by Sheriff B. E. Goad, charged that Lee Thompson, 45, died of cuts in his throat inflicted by High with a pocketknife.

High was held in the Umatilla County Jail without bail. Goad said he probably would be arraigned in justice court Thursday.

The card dealer told Goad and other officers that he slashed Thompson in self-defense. Goad said the two men apparently had quarreled over money.
