Reception Given Slator Miller Family

Picture by Master Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Slator Miller and their 15 year old son, Slator G. (Tito), and eight year old son, Geoffrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Slator Miller and sons, Slator G. and Geoffrey, who are enjoying an extended vacation trip on the mainland, before returning to their home in Honolulu, were guests of honor at the largest social affair of the year, when Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wharton entertained at a charming reception at their beautiful home on Chadwick street Thursday evening. Guests were invited to call between the hours of eight and ten o'clock.

Mr. Miller is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Miller of Roseburg. M. M. Miller was business manager of the News-Review for many years. Slator Miller attended the local schools and was graduated from West Point. The family has been taking a four-months vacation trip. They visited in California upon their arrival on the mainland, after which they went to Chicago, Detroit, New York City, the New England states, Boston and Washington, D. C. They returned west via the northern route, stopping at Butte, Montana, where the late M. M. Miller was first engaged in newspaper work. While here, they have been staying at Nika Lodge, summer home of Thomas Wharton, on the North Umpqua River.

They plan to leave Monday for Crater Lake, after which they will go to the Oregon Caves and down the coast to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mr. Miller expects to return to Honolulu the first of August, while his family will remain for a longer visit with relatives and friends in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wharton were assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Florence Wicklund, who is also visiting here from Honolulu; Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. J. E. Wharton, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. John Young and Miss Helen Casey.

Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers and Miss Jane Wharton received the guests and Mrs. Harry Hildeburn and Mrs. L. W.

Josse poured. The lace-covered table was centered with pale blue, orchid and pink hydrangeas arranged with sweetpeas in pastel colors. Large bouquets of roses and mixed summer flowers were used about the rooms. The beautiful garden was lighted with colorful lanterns, while attractive garden furniture was arranged on the patio and about the lawn for the enjoyment of the guests.

Out-of-town guests honoring the Millers besides Mrs. Wicklund of Honolulu included Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hunter, former residents of Honolulu and close friends of the Millers, and who are now residing near Oakland, Ore.; Senator and Mrs. Guy Gordon and Mrs. E. F. Tandy of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Marion Tait, and Miss Danne Hughes of New York; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Moore and Mrs. Adaline Fields of Portland; Admiral and Mrs. Gordon T. Finlay of Berkeley, Calif., who formerly made their home at Honolulu, who are here visiting Admiral Finlay's brother, Dr. G. C. Finlay, and family; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gordon of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Poorman of Salem.

Other invited guests included: Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Josse, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton and daughter, Miss Jo Ann; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wharton, and son, Glenn William Wharton; Miss Jane, Miss Bess and Thomas Wharton; Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Judge and Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. H. H. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Miss Isabelle, Miss Edith and Miss Lulu Curry; Mrs. Walter S. Hamilton, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kennerly, Jr., Mrs. Hildegarde Briggs and son, James; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Ernest and Harry Butler, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Miss Gertrude Rader, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapman,

Here From Honolulu

Mrs. Florence Wicklund

Mrs. Florence Wharton Wicklund, who is a teacher at McKinley High School in Honolulu, is spending her summer vacation in Roseburg visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, on Chadwick street. Mrs. Wicklund made the trip by air and expects to return to the island the middle of August. She is well-known here, having made her home in Roseburg until moving to Honolulu.

Rev. Brooks Moore performed the impressive ceremony at five o'clock.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white lace, designed with short sleeves, a high neckline, buttons to the waistline in front, and a full skirt. The fingertip veil was held in place with a seed pearl coronet. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Eugene Walters as matron of honor wore a pastel blue tulle dress with a net overskirt, and her flowers were yellow roses.

John Hall was best man and Eugene Walters and Floyd Lilligh were ushers. Miss Betty Thompson was soloist.

At the reception following Mrs. John Johnson poured and Mrs. Robert Nicholson of Roseburg presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Carroll Dailey cut the cake. Mrs. Floyd Lilligh and Mrs. Ernest Thaller served and Mrs. Ervin Bowden passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a white silk dress with green print and white accessories.

The couple are to be at home in Salem at the Olympic apartments following a trip to Southern Oregon and along the Rogue. Mrs. Hall is very well known in Roseburg having been formerly employed at the local Safeway store.

MR. AND MRS. CROCKER HONOR VISITORS AT DINNER WEDNESDAY
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crocker entertained at a very lovely dinner at their attractive home on the North Umpqua Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. George Winters and daughter, Beverly; and her niece, Miss Caroline Valenta, all of Jamestown, N. D. Additional guests were the Crocker's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Crocker.

Mrs. Winters is the mother of Mrs. George Crocker. The visitors are spending two weeks here.

MRS. ARMOUR MURDOCK ENTERTAINS AT SHOWER PARTY FOR SHIRLEY CARTER
Mrs. Armour Murdock entertained at a charming dessert-party and miscellaneous shower party Thursday evening at her home on East Oak street in compliment to Miss Shirley Carter, who became the bride of William H. Fredericks the following evening.

MISS HIATT IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY WEDNESDAY
Mrs. Leroy Hiatt entertained Wednesday at a small 6:30 dinner party honoring her daughter, Miss Yvonne on her birthday, at their home on West Washington Street.

Mixed seasonal flowers formed the decorations. Lovely gifts were presented to Miss Hiatt from: Miss Joyce Quine, Miss Christina Trapalos, and the hostess, Mrs. Hiatt.

Marry at Double Ring Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fredericks

Miss Shirley Jean Carter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Blaine Carter of Roseburg became the bride of William H. Fredericks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Fredericks of Pittsburg, Calif., at an impressive double ring ceremony Friday evening, July 2, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the nuptials in the presence of 150 relatives and friends.

Pink and white gladioli in three huge floor baskets, flanked by candelabra holding white cathedral candles, decorated the altar. White candles in ivy decorated holders were placed in the church windows. The aisles were marked with satin ribbons and bows. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. A. F. Micelli, Mrs. O. S. Chambers and Mrs. E. L. Knapp.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Homer W. Grew played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Mrs. Murray Hoff of Minneapolis, Minn., sister of the bridegroom, who sang "Through the Years" and "Because." Mrs. Hoff wore a light rose-colored formal gown and a corsage of sweetpeas.

The altar candles were lighted by Miss Virginia Young of Roseburg and Mrs. Don O'Neil of Corvallis, who wore white marquisette gowns and corsages of sweetpeas. Mrs. Grew played the traditional Bridal Chorus from Lohegrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar and at the close of the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of ivory satin fashioned in a train. The net yoke of the bodice was outlined with seed-pearl embroidery, which also decorated the wrist-length sleeves. Her full-length veil was held in place with a coronet of seedpearls. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia centered with a large orchid and tied with satin ribbons.

Miss Margaret Ann Carter was maid of honor for her sister and wore a gown of light blue net. She carried a bouquet of sweetpeas tied with light blue ribbons. Her flower headress was designed to match her bouquet. Mrs. William Adair and Miss Phyllis Hinsdale were bridesmaids, and wore gowns of white marquisette embroidered with appliques of light rose and pale blue. They carried bouquets of sweetpeas with matching floral headresses.

Karen Weaver of Idleyid, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a floor length gown of yellow organdy ruffled to the floor in back. She carried a tiny basket filled with rose petals. Gary Rouse of Roseburg, also a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Murray Hoff of Minneapolis, Minn., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were William Adair, Rendall Young, Robert Baum and Webster Briggs, of Myrtle Creek, a cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua with a pink net and flower hat, white gloves and a corsage of roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise-colored gown with white accessories and a corsage of roses.

A reception followed at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows on Corey Avenue. Chairs and tables were arranged in the lovely garden. The bride's table, covered by an exquisite hand-crocheted table cloth was decorated with a centerpiece of crystal and Calla lilies. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Henry Mowry, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Alspaugh, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, Sr., presided at the punch bowl. Miss Treva, had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. W. E. Briggs (cousin of the bride), Mrs. Ermil Jennie E. Jorey, Mrs. Harold Bellows, Miss Phyllis Hinsdale, Mrs. Don O'Neil, Miss Margaret Ann Carter and Miss Virginia Young assisted.

For traveling the bride chose a light blue-colored crepe suit fashioned with a full skirt. She wore a pink flower hat and white accessories with an orchid corsage. Following a honeymoon at coast points, they will make their home at 2619 Hilyard street, Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Chico State College at Chico, Calif., where she is a member of Pi Kappa Sigma sorority. Prior to going to college, she was employed in the society department of the Chico Record.

The bridegroom was graduated from High School in Watertown, N. D., and attended University of North Dakota. He served with the Naval Air Transport Service and also attended Chico State College. He will complete his studies in advertising at University of Oregon this year.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Fredericks of Pittsburg, Calif., parents of the bridegroom; his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hoff and baby son, Tory, and Mr. Hoff's mother, Mrs. H. B. Burdum, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Billie Wilson of Salem, Ore.
