Shrine All-Star Football Game At Portland Mapped

PORTLAND, July 13.—(Special)—Committee heads for the Shrine All-Star football game met here this week to map further plans for the big prep pigskin carnival, scheduled at Multnomah Stadium Saturday, August 28.

The first annual classic will pit the cream of Portland's prep players against the stars from the rest of the state. It is sponsored by the Al Kader temple of the Shrine.

James J. Richardson, managing director of the affair, announced that players and coaches of the state squad will assemble in Portland, August 15, and will start two weeks of intensive practice the following day. The starters will be housed at the Portland Hotel.

A committee, headed by Jack Matlack and Hernan Kenin, has been formed to provide entertainment for the team during its Portland stay. The squad will be feted nightly, and movies and trips will be provided free.

Charley Orr, commissioner of the Oregon Officials Association, announced that Al Lightner of Salem has been selected to replace Al Simpson of Southern Oregon College as one of the officials. The latter will be unable to attend.

Fred N. Bay, chairman of the pageantry committee, reported that his group is contacting each civic and fraternal organization that has a marching unit to appear in the colorful pre-game and halftime ceremonies.

Keith Hutchins, chairman of the ticket committee, emphasized that there will be no public sale of tickets until August 20. He urged fans out of Portland to secure advance reservations for tickets immediately.

Prices are $3.00 for reserved seats, $2.00 for general admission, and $1.00 for students 16 and under. Advance reservations can be secured by sending a check or money order to Shrine Game Headquarters, Parlor B, Portland Hotel.
