Marries Roseburg Boy

Mrs. Charles Beckley

The Cloverdale Presbyterian Church was the scene of the wedding Sunday, June 20th, at 3:00 p.m. of Miss Joan Ale Learned, to Charles Louis Beckley, son of Mrs. Emma Beckley of Roseburg, Oregon. Rev. Reese E. Scull officiated at a double ring ceremony. The bride, daughter of Mrs. Margie Learned, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Victor Learned Sr., wore a white skinner satin dress with sweet-heart neckline and seed pearl trimming and a court train with finger tip veil falling from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a nosegay of pink buds and white carnations centered with an orchid. Mrs. James Hatfield, who was matron of honor for her sister, wore a bluish pink satin dress with a head-dress of white sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Doris Johnson and Miss Elaine Brandt. They both wore pale blue dresses and carried nosegays of pink sweet-peas, blue larkspur and painted daisies. Little Miss Karen Rotherberger, who was flower girl, was dressed in yellow mesh and carried a basket of rose petals. Miss Lois Bates in pin, silk and Miss Becky Exline in yellow silk with corsages of gardenias lighted the candles. Mr. Donald Edredge of Camas, Wash., was best man and the ushers were Edmund Learned of Cloverdale, Ore., Alan Knudson and Thomas Shrum both of Roseburg, Ore. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Maynard Alt sang "Because" and "Thine Alone,"

Marry at First Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Daley Eugene Beckham

Before an ivy covered archway, flanked by tall white candelabra and two white baskets of blue and white delphinium, Miss Joyce Eileen Kivdera daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kivdera of Roseburg, became the bride of Daley Eugene Beckham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Welker of Roseburg. Rev. H. P. Sconce performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church in this city. As the guests assembled Mrs. Gordon Walker played softly on the organ and accompanied Miss Sue Hahn who sang "Because" and Harold Mobley who sang "Your's is My Heart Alone." Miss Hahn was gowned in a formal of blue net and black velvet. As the organist played "Aloha" the altar candles were lighted by Miss Vivienne Goude, in blue lace formal and Miss Mildred Diester, who wore a pink net and lace formal. Mrs. Walker played the traditional Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the wedding party to advance to the altar and at the close of the ceremony she played Mendelssohn's wedding recessional. The bride, given in marriage by S. A. Church of Roseburg, a friend of the family, was lovely in a princess style gown of white slipper satin made entrain with modified leg of mutton sleeves. Her white net veil was held in place by a tiara of white satin embroidered with seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, a High School graduation gift from her mother. Mrs. George Hughes acted as matron of honor and wore a rose colored fishnet gown. Her bouquet was of blue carnations. Miss Yvonne Byrd, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janet Hall, were bridesmaids. Miss Byrd was gowned in blue net and Miss Hall wore a dress of pink net. Both carried small nosegays of pink carnations. Little Wanda Willhoit was flower girl and wore a floor length dress of blue organdy. George Hughes acted as best
