UMPQUA MINERAL CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL PICNIC AT PARK

Members of the Umpqua Mineral Club made merry Thursday evening when they met with baskets and lanterns for a 6 o'clock potluck picnic at Kiwanis park. Jack Wharton had coffee bubbling by the time the guests arrived, and the assortment of delicious foods filled a long rustic table beneath the spreading maple trees. Mrs. Essie Koenitz provided a colorful bouquet of sweet peas for an al fresco centerpiece. Prior to the repast, Leslie Roberts took several pictures of the group.

The picnic was scheduled in place of the regular monthly meeting, usually held at the K. P. Hall. A short business session followed later in the evening and reports were made on a field trip over the 4th and 5th of July to the Peck Ranch near Medford, in which eight of the members participated. Moss agates were the object of the trip and a very good 'take' was the result. Those who made the overnight excursion were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose, Mrs. Manuela Hutchins, Mrs. Hilda Peterson, Theo Bond, Jim Wolford, Everett Teater and Bob Housley.

G. C. Goodin, a resident of Needles, California, was a guest of the evening and delighted everyone with his extensive display of polished and mounted agates, bloodstones, tiger eye and other interesting and beautiful stones, as well as thunder eggs and specimens in the rough.

Members and their friends who enjoyed the picnic together were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Slankard, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Teater and guest, Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond, Miss Hallie Bond and Master Jerry Lilly of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Weston, newcomers to Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Jr., and children Evangeline and Judd, Mrs. Essie Koenitz and sister, Mrs. Leona Smith, Mr. W. O. Ginger Rogers Again Teamed With Astaire

HOLLYWOOD, July 20.—(AP)—Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers will be back together as a dance team in their next picture.

But it took a bad break for Judy Garland to swing it.

MGM studio announced that Miss Garland's doctor had ordered her to take a three-month rest to recover from nervous exhaustion.

So the studio put in a hurry-up call to Ginger at her Oregon ranch. She's arrived to start preparation for the role in "The Bark-keys of Broadway."

It will be the 11th time she and Astaire have teamed up—but the first time in more than a half dozen years.

TIP TOPICS

By BILL TIPTON

In the fabulous days of yore, when men were tough hombres and a six-shooter imposed law and order west of the Pecos, a horse was man's best friend, his means of rapid transit, and often his only chance for employment and claim to wealth. The prehistoric horse was no larger than a jack rabbit and existed long before primitive man put in an appearance, in or out of Eden. But horses are higher nowadays, along with everything else.

When Argentina was a lousy infant, horse grease was burned in the street lamps of Buenos Aires, which gives you an idea of the number of wild horses roaming the Pampas at that time. While in Iceland, the small shaggy ponies are often fed fish heads to tide them through the long forageless winter.

You may not be your brother's keeper, but you are responsible for any overt act which your horse may commit, including assault, battery and mayhem. When man bites dog, that's supposed to be news. But when dog bites man, look out for bad news, brother, if it happens to be your dog. The same goes for your horse, or your wife, or your man servant or your maid servant.

Actually, ten dollars doesn't go very far in these latter days. A steak dinner, perhaps, gobbled up in an hour of costly bliss. A dress shirt, good for half-a-dozen trips to the laundry. But here's a proposition worth investigating. For ten good round iron men you can get a full 365 day's protection for yourself and your family, covering any kind of injury for which you might be held responsible.

If old Swayback kicks the hired man; if Gramma bites the postman; if Butch, bless his cunning little heart, heaves a boulder through Groucho's bay window; laugh it off with a spot of Liability Insurance.

For insurance of every kind, and assurance of complete coverage, come up and see me sometime. Bill Tipton, that is, at 129 N. Jackson St., beside the Rexall Drug. Phone me at 973-V, or write me at Box 691. Got all that, now? I'll be seeing you.—(Paid advertisement.)
